NEWS IN BRIEF

Newspaper Runs Obama Assassination Ad

PENNSYLVANIA--A classified ad, printed on May 28, 2009, in the Warren Times Observer (WTO) read, "May Obama follow in the steps of Lincoln, Garfield, McKinley and Kennedy!" The four presidents were all assassinated.

The newspaper's advertising staff claimed they didn't make the historical connection.

The newspaper has since turned information over to police and the Secret Service is supposed to be investigating the person who placed the ad.

The day after the ad was printed the WTO published a note that said the newspaper "apologizes for the oversight."

Messenger Elijah Muhammad wrote in his book, The Fall of America, "All four of these presidents were known to have spoken and acted sympathetically towards the so-called Negroes, and they paid with their lives for doing so." The Messenger also wrote that: "any Negro who wants to lead the so called Negro to a better life and towards true peace, freedom, justice and equality, which he is entitled to enjoy, is also subjected to the same kind of assassinations or attempts at assassination."

Chemical common in baby bottles linked to developmental problems

CALIFORNIA--More than 200 independent scientific studies have linked the chemical, bisphenol A (BPA) to brain development problems and behavioral troubles in young children, the early onset of puberty and several types of cancer.

Scientists say the chemical can leach into a liquid, particularly when a bottle or cup is heated.

BPA is commonly used to manufacture baby bottles, toddler sippy cups and food containers that independent scientists say is a threat to childhood development.

The chemists who work for the manufactures of BPA claim it is safe and are fighting against the hundreds of researchers who say there is "good reason to have concern" about BPA.

Messenger Elijah Muhammad warned us for 44 years and wrote in his books, How To Eat To Live that: "Mothers should feed their babies from their breast milk if they possibly can, as this is the best".

The Messenger said: "We were fed with death at the very beginning — the wrong food and drink, given to us when we were babies by our wicked enemies".

Transracial Adpotion One-sided

Since the 1994 Multiethnic Placement Act made it illegal to deny adoption based on race, it has become a popular trend to see white couples adopting black children.

However, it remains nearly impossible for a black couple to adopt a white child. Why? After all, throughout our history, here in America, Black women and men (in the form of "Mammy" and "Uncle Tom") have always been entrusted by whites to rear their white children.

On the other hand there is a history of slavery, rape and abuse among white people when it comes to black children.

The number of white families adopting outside their race is growing and is now in the thousands. And the wise among us, realize that this may well become a new form of slavery.

The cost of adopting a child from an agency, or private adoption, can range from $5000 to $40,000 or more.

Adopting from the U.S. foster care system is generally the least expensive type of adoption, usually involving little or no cost, and states often provide subsidies to adoptive parents.

Forty per cent of the 500,000 children in foster care are black.

How the White man uses Islam to oppose Messenger Muhammad

By
Brother Khalil Shabazz

DETROIT, MI--"African Americans" today make up the largest Muslim group in America at 42%, according to the Muslim American Society Website .

During the time that The Honorable Elijah Muhammad (peace be upon him) was among us, Islam, under his guidance, was the fastest growing religion in the country. The University of Islam was the largest school in America teaching the Arabic language, and the Nation of Islam owned thousands of acres of farmland, supermarkets, restaurants, ships etc.

According to "Islam and the Blackamerican" by Sherman A. Jackson (p73) "...under Islam of The Honorable Elijah Muhammad, education, work, and community-uplift were synonymous with Black Muslim..."

But the writer adds "Sunni Islam was increasingly being invoked as a reason not to work (for the infidel), not to be educated (in the infidel's institutions), and not to be involved in the (infidel) community.....one could now almost assume that the stricter a Blackamerican Sunni Muslim adhered to Islam, the less educated, less gainfully employed and less civic-minded he or she was likely to be."

We will find in another book called "When the word is given" written in 1963 by Louis E. Lomax (p16) another rare positive analysis of the teachings of The Honorable Elijah Muhammad:

"Non-Muslim Negroes used to scoff when Elijah Muhammad wrote and talked about "knowledge of self." They are less apt to scoff now that a new wave of race pride has engulfed the Negro and a coterie of clean-cut, well-dressed, polite, and chillingly moral Black Muslim ex-convicts parade through the Negro community each day."

The question we must ask ourselves today is, how Sunni Islam went from having a negative image to now becoming more attractive to our people then Islam under the leadership of The Honorable Elijah Muhammad?

When the devil realized the impact that the teachings of The Honorable Elijah Muhammad had on the Black community he immediately went to work to devise a plan to stop the success of Messenger Muhammad.

In 1965, not only did the devil cause many of our people to believe that The Nation of Islam murdered Malcolm X, the devil also passed The Immigration and Nationality Act, which allowed non European immigrants to freely come to America. This 1965 Act abolished the 1924 Immigration Act which only allowed European immigrants to freely come to America.

The Immigration Act of 1965 opened the door for Muslims from around the world to come to America and teach their own versions of Islam. It's no coincidence that The Nation of Islam originated in America in the city of Detroit and now Metro Detroit has the largest population of Arabs than anywhere outside of the Middle East.

In the May 13, 2009 issue of The Detroit News in an article titled "Muslim Immigrants from around the globe built foundation, which spread to Dearborn". Orthodox Muslims celebrate the anniversary of The American Muslim Mosque. They say that "this mosque is the seed of all other mosques in the state of Michigan...the mosque attracts people of many ethnicities."

Now our people can go to the "Mosque" with the Orthodox Muslims of "many ethnicities" to learn terms like "True Islam." Not knowing that this term is being used to trick our people into believing that the Orthodox form of Islam is the "true" or real form of Islam.

The enemy also makes Orthodox Islam more appealing to our people and make the opposition against the Messengers teachings stronger when Imam Siraj Wahhaj was allowed in 1991 to give the invocation (opening prayer) to the House of Representatives and the very next year the Messenger's own son, Wallace D Muhammad, gave the invocation in the Senate.

In 2007, "African American", D-Minn Keith Ellison became the first Muslim Congressman and he took his oath with Thomas Jefferson's 2 vol Holy Quran. To make a long story short the devils

Black People in Scripture

By

Minister Kemani Wadud

WASHINGTON, D.C. --I bear witness no one deserves to be worshiped except Allah, Who came in the person of Master Fard Muhammad and the Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad is His last and greatest Messenger.

The Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad taught us that black people are written in the Holy Bible from Genesis to Revelations.

Many of us know the timeline given in the Holy Bible; Adam 6,000 years ago, Moses 4,000 years ago, and Jesus 2,000 years ago.

One should to ask, "If Adam only goes 6,000 years ago then who are the fossils discovered of humans of ten thousand, one hundred thousand and over a million year old?"

The Messenger writes in Message to the Blackman in America, "Check back 10,000 or 20,000 years ago, look at history, those people were our people."

Creator of Adam

"Let us make man" That "us" was, as Messenger Elijah Muhammad taught, the 60,000 Black people, which included their leader (Yacub) on the Island of Pelan (Patmos in the Bible), who took part in the Master grating of a new, unalike people.

"God created them in His image" (Genesis 1:27). They (white people) are in the image and likeness of a human being (black man), but are altogether a different kind of (evil natured) human being than that of the black (kind natured) human being. (p. 121) Message to the Blackman in America

The Seed of Abraham

God to Abraham: (Genesis 15:13) "Know of a surety that your seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years. 14. And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance."

The strange land is America and we were taken from our home

(Africa) and brought here (America) beginning year 1555 A.D. , The Messenger writes, by the English Christian slave trader, Sir John Hawkins/Hopkins in the year 1555 to present 2009 = 454 years)

The Lost Sheep

(Luke Chapter 15:6) "And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbors, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost."

The messenger writes Master Fard Muhammad, Allah, the Son of Man is a specially prepared man to do the work of redeeming the Lost Sheep.

We (Black people in America) are lost from our way of life-Islam, our God (Allah), our people, our native land, and our original language.

The Messenger writes in Chapter 22 of Our Saviour Has Arrived:

"This is symbolized in the Bible under the symbols of "the Sheep and the goats." If you study the nature of these two animals, you will find that there is a great difference between them.

One Animal (the sheep) is trustworthy; and the other animal (the goat) is untrustworthy. By nature the Black People are good, but the Black Man is like a sheep — if the wrong people, the evil people, teach and guide him, he will become like his evil guide.

But as soon as you take the Black Man away from the evil guide and put him under his own good guide, he will go to his own good guide and he will follow him because, by nature, the Black Man loves good.

This is why the Bible prophesies of a great separation (of the people) coming about before the end of The World of the wicked who love to take people and mix them up and make them to believe in other than right."

The Lost Coin

Luke 15:8-10 "Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find

'Know of a surety that your seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years. And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance.'

--God to Abraham: (Genesis 15:13-14)

it? And when she has found it, she calls her friends and her neighbors together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost. Likewise, I say to you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repents.

The Messenger writes the angels rejoice when one of us are found.

The Prodigal Son (wasteful)

Luke 15:13-16,21-22,24): "And not many days later, the younger son gathered everything together and went on a journey into a distant country, and there he squandered his estate with loose living.

"Now when he had spent everything, a severe famine occurred in that country and he began to be impoverished.

"So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

"And he would have gladly filled his stomach with the pods that the swine were eating, and no one was giving anything to him.

"And the son said to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight; I am no longer worthy to be called your son."

"But the father said to his servants, "Quickly bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet;

"For this son of mine was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found," and they began to celebrate.

This prodigal son tried everything for himself and failed. The prodigal son, The Messenger writes:

"Being tempted by the loose life of strange women, drinking, gambling, and adultery, caused him to love the stranger's way of life so much so that it cost him all that he originally possessed (self-independence and Divine Guidance). His Father (God in person) had to come and be his representative to again meet his brothers, family, and friends."

As the messenger states, "After everything fails comes Islam."

Lazarus (poor, lazy)

The poor man named Lazarus and the rich man: Luke 16:19-20 "There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores."

In Message To The Blackman the messenger writes "Lazarus (so-called American Negro) was so charmed over the wealth and food of the rich man (white man) that he could not leave his gate to seek the same for himself."

God, to show His power, put the rich man in hell.

Lazarus and the rich man is a sign for us today; the evil, rich (white world) America is falling in the form of Lehman brothers, Merrill Lynch, Wachovia Bank, Chrysler, etc., and this will continue.

The Messenger writes in Our Savior Has Arrived (Chapter 23) that General Motors and Ford will not be in hereafter.

We are now seeing a change of worlds but, as The Messenger writes, many of us today are so LAZY that we are willing to suffer anything rather than go for self.

It is true that our God has come to set us in Heaven, but not a Heaven wherein we will not have to work.

The last chapter in Revelations 22:3-4, "And there shall be no more curses: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him: And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads."

The Messenger taught us that he was taught face to face by God (Allah in Person).

There are a hundred names of Allah (God) for us to choose from.

In the February 28, 1969 edition of Muhammad Speaks Newspaper, The Messenger, wrote:

THE BLACK man from the root beginning is from a Black Father. Therefore, he should go in the Name of his BLACK FATHER. As I have said, as long as the so-called American Negro is blind to the knowledge of self, he does not Islam under the leadership of The Honorable Elijah Muhammad is our ONLY Salvation!!! Thank you for reading! As Salaam Alaikum.

DETROIT, Mich.--In The Name of Allah Who Came In The Person of Master Fard Muhammad to Whom all Holy Praises is due, I forever Thank Him for giving to us, and raising up in our midst, His Last and Greatest Messenger, The Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad (peace be upon him).

This is for those of us who don't know. You are being caught up in a (whirlwind). This wind in the form of negative talk from the so-called believers that don't want to work in unity under one Banner of what Messenger Elijah Muhammad (peace be upon him) taught us.

Years ago, Capt. Roscoe Muhammad Sr. (who has since passed away) of Temple No. 1 Michigan, told me the name of this kind of believer (STONEY).

Stoney is stone-hearted. He or she is jealous and envy of the success of any believer. STONEY never realizes that Allah blesses whom He Pleases when He Pleases. These are the ones that the hot air (Talk) comes blowing out of there mouths. They want something for nothing. They don't want to do any work, but they want to be recognize. They want you to look up to them as being something great.

STONEY always has some weak excuse for not working in unity with the Believers. Stoney goes around spreading false reports and slack talking the Believers who are doing the work. Stoney is real lazy. Stoney's only motivation, for seeming to push The Messenger's Elijah Muhammad's Program, is opposition to the Believers. This is one of (STONEY'S) tricks! He makes you think, by running all over the country, he's with The No 1 Program by TALKING Program. No Sir! He's got his own program because he (STONEY) is in opposition to the Real No 1 Program.

STONEY's desire is to be in the Lime Light. In stead of working under one Banner, STONEY tries to organize little groups to put them in opposition as he is in opposition against The Program.

STONEY, do you know you are not far off from being a Real Hypocrite? We have all kinds of STONEYs through out our Nation of Islam, just like the Hypocrites, always trying to put one over by trying to deceive the believers.

They like causing trouble, faultfinding, backbiting and rebelling. The Messenger Elijah Muhammad (peace be upon him) warned us: "THESE YOU KEEP AWAY!"

With the help of Allah, let me tell all you (STONEY). You are a small piece of (ROCK) in the eyesight Allah He can and Will break you up into small pieces when ever He pleases. I want you to remember that, STONEY! Don't forget it!

Let me ask you this (STONEY). What did The Messenger say for us the (F.O.I.) Fruit of Islam? I will tell you (STONEY) with the help of Allah.

THE MESSENGER SAID FOR

US TO GO AFTER OUR DEAD (LOST FOUND) BROTHERS AND SISTERS. THAT'S WHAT HE SAID! So it's not about you (STONEY) it's about getting the DEAD.

You must remember (STONEY), you are nothing without the BROTHERHOOD. You will never find another BROTHERHOOD as GREAT as this ONE under the Guidance and LEADERSHIP OF THE MOST HONORABLE ELIJAH MUHAMMAD (peace be upon him). NOR will you find another SISTERHOOD (M.G.T. & G.C.C.) as GREAT as this ONE under the Guidance and LEADERSHIP OF THE MOST HONORABLE ELIJAH MUHAMMAD (peace be upon him).

In order for us, as believers, to be successful, we must work under ONE BANNER, ONE NATION, ONE FLAG, ONE GOD (ALLAH Who came in the Person of MASTER FARD MUHAMMAD, And ONE LEADER AND TEACHER, THE LAST

CLOUDS WITHOUT WATER

By Brother Ahmad Muhammad

Brother Ahmad Muhammad

CHICAGO, Illinois--In The Name of Allah, The Beneficent The Merciful, Who came In The Person of Master Fard Muhammad and raised from among us, our Leader, Teacher and Guide, The Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad.

As Salaam Alaikum!

The Messenger Of Allah, The Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad (peace be upon him), while teaching in the Mosque, would always have some story to tell to illustrate a point.

In reminding us about the kinds of people who would betray their own kind, He gave what He referred to as, "the signs of the blusterer, the braggart, the entertainer and the clown."

The Messenger said that the devil spots the "puffed up ones" quickly as he knows that they will take "a butter biscuit" to deceive and betray their own brothers and sisters.

Now, in 2009 it's the cell phone and a few dollars. It does not take much for a so-called Negro to make trouble among his or her own kind. Whether they be Muslims, Christians or otherwise, the insanity is everywhere.

The Messenger stated that Allah has prepared a fire, unlike any fire we have seen, for the devils and their so-called Muslim and Christian followers. Did you think that you would ever see the day when we as a Black Nation of Islam, taught by The Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad would be trying to be like Christians, or carrying weapons, or selling drugs, or posing half nude, or drinking intoxicating liquors, among other decadent actions?

The Messenger knew us. Allah gave us chances for many years to take the correct path...but...we did not, hence the present condition.

"Evil things to come in the last days." People start to fall back into savagery and turn on one another. They speak evil about God, even those with Holy Names speak ill of The Messenger, who paved the way for these hypocrites to have Holy Names. They tell you how they have found new gods, just as in Moses' time. They tell you how

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad (peace be upon him) was teaching 'baby teachings.' They tell you that they speak Arabic now and have 'outgrown' The Messenger's teachings. They tell you how you can smoke, drink, take all kinds of narcotics with moderation, just like some Christian preachers instruct their parishioners. They tell you to 'lighten up', play a little. They encourage adultery by their actions. Then, they turn around with a straight face...and...ask you for money!

"They are absolutely going insane ... into evil!" said The Honorable Elijah Muhammad, in the 1964 audio taped broadcast titled, Warning To The Hypocrites.

Have you noticed the devils selling Nation of Islam materials over the internet for high cost? Are they selling these items to enlighten or to mock? Have you noticed that the Muslim Sisters don't wear the Muslim garb as often as they did when The Messenger was alive? IF you have noticed, have you wondered why not?

The Messenger stated that the so-called Negro is blindly going after things that will cause self destruction, removing themselves from the love and mercy of God. The so-called Negro believes they are going aright. The Messenger says that this warning can be found throughout the Holy Qur'an and the Bible.

The Messenger stated in the above-mentioned audio tape, that Allah does not bless and has no mercy for hypocrites: "Allah holds out nothing for the hypocrites according to the Holy Qur'an but the path to HELL!" The Messenger says that The Righteous should not even speak to the hypocrite! "Allah will not show sympathy to a hypocrite." "The Holy Qur'an teaches that He appoints for the hypocrite a COMPANION OF DEVILS, to keep them going astray so that they will MEET the chastisement that they justly due." "No divine justice for them or His mercy!"

The hypocrites LOVE to be seen. They appear on 'Summit gatherings' they appear on national and local television and now the internet on a daily basis.

The Messenger says that you can easily pick them out. He says they wear fancy clothes, they strut and brag about what they have done. They state or have another imp state the number of degrees they have obtained. They tell you of their financial success. They tell you of the great things THEY WILL DO IN THE FUTURE. But ... as The Messenger tells us, LOOK AT THE REALITY! Look at the condition Black People are in today. What did all the degrees mean for the upliftment of the so-called Negro? What do they mean for the upward advancement of the so-called Negro today? Take a look around you!

Think over this! The Messenger of Allah, with a third grade education, did while He was alive, MORE for the so-called Negro than ALL OF THE PREACHERS, TEACHERS, STRUTTERS, ENTERTAINERS, PROFESSORS, IMAMS, MINISTERS, TV AND INTERNET PERSONALITIES COMBINED! AND ... in death ... He STILL IS DOING MORE!

know by what name he should be called. You could call him anything and he would answer to it, for he does not know his True Name.

The white man calls the so-called American Negro by many nick-names. The so-called American Negro, then re-nick-names himself, the nick-names of the white man, although he does not even know what they mean.

The black man (so-called American Negro) is a member of the family and a direct descendant of the Creator Who made the Heavens and the Earth. Therefore the son should be called by the Name of his Father and not called by the name of an alien.

The white race is an alien people to the Black Man.

So many times, you have heard that God has ninety-nine (99) Names or Attributes (That which is Attributed to God).

The 100th Name or Attribute of God is the Name, Allah, Which Represents that He is ALL IN ALL, of every Good name.

AND ... in death ... He STILL IS DOING MORE!

The Messenger taught us that all the degrees in the world do us no good unless there is UNITY OF PURPOSE! He said that once we obtain these degrees, we run to the devils (white race) for a job instead of uniting, and instead of asking and begging for a job, UNIFY AND DEMAND SOME OF THIS EARTH THAT WE CAN CALL OUR OWN!

The Messenger reminded us again and again that "WITHOUT LAND WE MAY AS WELL REMOVE OURSELVES FROM THE EARTH AS A PEOPLE!" No Nation can exist without a land of its own!

We are millions here among an open enemy for the past four hundred plus years, depending CREATOR and Ends with THE FIRST AND THE LAST, THE ETERNAL.

Many of His Attributes refer to such Names as POWER, FORCE, THE MIGHTY, THE WISE, THE MOST MERCIFUL, THE MAKER, THE FASHIONER, THE BEST KNOWER, THE ALL-HEARING ONE, THE ALL-SEEING ONE.

THE HOLY QUR-AN says that He has the Best Names and the Most Beautiful Names. So many of these Names that we should have, are pertaining to Our Father.

His Names of Paradise and Only worthy of Praise, are just a few of the Great Names Which Belong to God, and He Wants to Give Them to us.

The Bible teaches us, that He Will Give His Names to those who believe in Him.

According to the Bible, Rev.7:3, the Judgment cannot take place until those Who Believe in Him are Given His Name, (sealed in their forehead).

Will you turn down a Great Name which will live Forever, Bible Is. 56:5, in exchange for the nick-names of your very enemies?

They have no meaning as to a human being, such as Mr. Fish. We are human beings and should not be called Mr. Fish. They name you Mr. Hog. You are not a Hog. They call you Mr. Bird. We should not be called bird. We are not winged fowl. They are names which are worthless to human beings.

The only white people who are allowed to use One of the Names of Allah (God) is one who has accepted Islam. These Names are given to them because of their faith in the religion of Allah (God). However, this does not mean that by nature, these Names belong to them.

IT IS ONLY YOU, Black Brother, that by nature should be called by the Names of your God and Father, the Creator of the Heavens and the Earth.

THIS IS WHAT ALLAH HAS TAUGHT ME. BELIEVE IT OR LET IT ALONE! Hurry and get a righteous name.

As The Messenger writes, nothing fits the description of these scriptures better than the so-called American Negroes (Asiatics). As-salaam-alaikum

Things Your Parents Should Have Told You

Your PROM: This is a sensitive issue, but listen

Reprinted from the first Chapter of Things Your Parents Should Have Told You

By
Sister Shahrazad Ali

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.— There is one particular event which really gets blown out of proportion and that event is your high school PROM. A PROM is a formal dance or ball. It is taken from the word “Promenade”, from English/European dances and American white western square-dancing during which the couples march counterclockwise in a circle.

The idea of a “PROM” is not taken from Black history. And, it seems that in the traditional white family the girls are programmed to get married, have a wedding, set up housekeeping, have a child and live an anticipated somewhat predictable and planned life.

The white boys know that at some point they are expected to kneel down on one knee, whip out a ring and propose marriage to a woman, marry her and work to support his wife and family.

Of course this is an over simplification of the arrangement, but the sequence is correct.

In other words, in the white culture, the youth are programmed for a certain mating process and look forward to the big wedding event as the norm, not the exception as the process of starting out in life.

To the contrary, in our communities, we did not teach our little girls or boys to look forward to growing up and getting married or having and supporting a family.

We gave you little or not instruction about marriage, what to expect to make it successful.

We certainly did not train our boys into any kind of rites of passage that included husband-hood, fatherhood, or marriage proposal.

Consequently, this is where the PROM comes in.

We traded the wedding event for the PROM. We supported you in making the prom the biggest event of your life (next to High School graduation),

Think about it. Everything you do for the prom is literally the same preparation for a wedding -- and can cost nearly as much.

We have the most overblown PROM preparation, all the way down to having a crowd of people come to the house to see the PROM attendees leave.

There is much picture taking and movie making, giggling, funny jokes, confetti thrown, and food served during every step of the preparation.

Many times the parents even get together at the girl’s house to meet, rent cars, or help in the getting-ready.

Some of you even rent hotel rooms for a reception party afterwards (the Honeymoon suite?).

The PROM takes the place of looking forward to a wedding ceremony. So after you went to the PROM you got it off, and neither of you, the girls nor the boys gave any other significant thought to looking forward to the process of a wedding ceremony.

It seems some cultures plan weddings and our culture plans the PROM.

Some of you get so prom-drunk that you go to several events after you graduate because you like the excitement of the event, the wearing of dress-up clothes.

Note: High school PROMS are for teenagers. If you are over 21 you have no business at the PROM.

Sister Shahrazad Ali

Much of what I am telling you in this chapter is information I want to provoke you into looking at in a different way than you previously have.

Wayne Williams Believed To Be Innocent of the Atlanta Child Murders

ATLANTA—Between 1979 and 1981, 29 Black Children were murdered in a small Atlanta community.

In 1982 Wayne Williams was railroaded and convicted of killing two adult men based on nothing but trumped up circumstantial evidence. Claiming that the crime lab matched fibers from Williams’ environment: his bedspread, bathroom, gloves, clothes, carpets, dog the victims.

Black people in America have learned, the hard way, not to trust the so-called “scientific” evidence from America’s crime labs.

While we trust science to be true, we have learned that “scientists” do lie and make mistakes.

For instance, in September, 2008, City officials shut down the Detroit police crime lab after the Michigan State Police uncovered false findings in 10 percent of 200 random cases.

In July, 2004 an investigation by the Seattle Post-Intelligencer revealed that forensic scientists, at the Washington State Patrol crime lab, contaminated tests or made other mistakes while handling DNA evidence in at least 23 cases involving major crimes in the prior three years.

Investigators discovered that forensic scientists tainted tests with their own DNA in eight of the 23 cases, and made mistakes in six others, from throwing out evidence swabs to misreading results, implicating innocent people of major crimes they did not commit.

Tests were contaminated by DNA from unrelated cases in three examinations, and between evidence in the same case in another.

The source of contamination in five other tests is unknown.

Crime labs across the country are struggling with similar problems.

In Houston, the DNA unit of the city’s police lab was closed in 2002 after a local television station, KHOU, reported several problems; including missing

President Obama urged to grant clemency to innocent Black Man on Death Row

'We want freedom for all black men and women now under death sentence in innumerable prisons in the North, as well as the South.'

-- Messenger Elijah Muhammad

The above words of Messenger Elijah Muhammad were once looked upon as "drastic", but the fact that the state of Texas, alone, has paid about $9 million to 46 people who were wrongly convicted, helps us to understand that The Messenger was right on point.

On May 27, 2009, a new law, was passed in Texas (The Tim Cole Act) named after a young Black named (Tim Cole), who died in 1999 at age 38, while serving a 25 year sentence for a 1985 rape that DNA evidence has since proven he did not commit.

Cole's (a military veteran and college) claims of innocence were ignored by the judicial system until evidence from the original rape kit was tested in 2008.

The tests cleared Cole and connected the crime to Jerry Wayne Johnson, who is serving life in prison for separate rapes. Cole was the first DNA exoneree in Texas history, and the rape victim in his case joined his family in trying to clear his name.

Under the Tim Cole Act, people who are sent to prison for crimes they did not commit will get more money from the state as compensation.

The new law boosts lump-sum payments from $50,000 to $80,000 for every year of confinement and grants an annuity to provide a lifetime of income.

Exonerees would also get 120 hours of paid tuition at a career center or public college.

The Tim Cole Act became law on the same day that another black man in Texas, Jerry Lee Evans, of Dallas was released after spending

Now comes Troy Davis, a 40-year-old Black man who has been on death row in the state of Georgia since 1991.

On May 16, 2009 his "stay" of execution was lifted, leaving it open to state officials to set an execution date. It won't be his first. In September, 2008 he was just two hours from a lethal injection when the Supreme Court stepped in and the execution was halted.

DNA test results that came back this month excluded Evans in the rape of an 18-year-old Southern Methodist University student.

THE WOMAN IN ISLAM

WOMAN'S GOOD MORALS UPLIFT MAN'S MORALS

By Maragary Hassain

Reprinted by request from the November 12, 1971 Edition of Muhammad Speaks

In the Name of Allah (God) MASTER FARD MUHAMMAD to Whom Praises are due forever. The Woman in Islam Gives all Holy Praises to Allah (God) for Raising up and Teaching our Beloved Brother, MESSENGER ELIJAH MUHAMMAD, the Wisdom and the Book, for our Great Awakening and Divine Guidance.

MESSENGER MUHAMMAD teaches The Woman in Islam that many times the woman accuses the man of being the cause of her troubles, however, it was really the woman who was at fault. therefore MESSENGER MUHAMMAD takes great care in the moral teaching of the Black Woman.

MESSENGER MUHAMMAD teaches us that when the Black woman has good, strong morals she forces the man to pull himself up and have good morals also. She makes of him a good Black man.

WHEN the Black woman has a morally strong man, she has one she can place her love and confidence in. She really has a good companion, a good provider and a good protector. In doing this good thing (strengthening the morals) of her Black Man she is doing a great and far-reaching service to herself, her home and family and to our community.

MESSENGER MUHAMMAD teaches The Woman in Islam of the great power she has with her Black Man and to turn the use of her power for the benefit of herself and her Black Man instead of continuing in the destructive path which the white man has lead the Black People in all of the time we have been in America.

ALL PRAISES ARE DUE TO ALLAH (God) for His Divine MESSENGER MUHAMMAD and His Divine Message.

What Islam Has Done For Me

I will never be lonely

By

Sister Muminah Nazira Muhammad

CHICAGO, Illinois--In the name of Allah who appeared in the person of Master Fard Muhammad and in the name of His last and Greatest Messenger, the Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad. I greet you all in the Nations greetings of Peace and Paradise,

As Salaam Alaikum!

When I was a child I use to have this reoccurring nightmare. My family moved away and left me. I started to give chase, running through crowds, screaming to the top of my lungs for my parents and siblings to wait for me! I ran faster and faster; screamed louder and louder, but I couldn't catch up to them and they didn't hear me. They got on the truck with the loaded furniture and proceeded. Before the truck pulled off, I would wake up in a cold sweat, scared, gasping for my breath and heart palpitating.

In reality, I am the youngest child of six. Back then, my older siblings would leave me when they wanted to hang out with their friends or go somewhere to play. They'd send me off by telling me, you can go with us, but first you have to put your shoes on. When I would return with my shoes, they would be gone.

Sometimes, I would chase them down the stairs but they would outrun me. My feelings would be hurt.

I would climb back up the stairs slowly. Crying, lips shaking, saying to my mother "I want to go", as she hugged and consoled me.

Finally, I adjusted and learned how to occupy myself by drawing, reading and writing. I no longer suffered with separation anxiety.

When I started following the teachings of the Most Hon. Elijah Muhammad, the people I was

'Surely thou canst not guide whom thou lovest, but Allah guides whom He pleases; and He knows best those who walk aright.' --Holy Qur'an 28:56 close to and loved the most started to drift away.

Before Islam, I hosted many gatherings in my apartment where there was standing room only. Plenty of dancing, drinking and smoking going on.

Then I replaced the partying with the teachings. I would invite my family over to my house and share with them the "good news" that I learned about Our God and Saviour, Master Fard Muhammad.

I wanted them to see what I was involved in and invited them out to C.R.O.E. (The Coalition for the Remembrance of Elijah) to hear the life-giving teachings of the Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad.

Only a few (not even one handful) accepted the invitation to truth. I appreciated the support, but was disappointed because they didn't show any interest.

They respected and honored the change in my life, but that was as far as it went.

The Messenger had made the truth plain enough to be understood by everyone. But, to my surprise, my family didn't gravitate towards Islam.

I have come to understand, now, that everyone will not accept the truth.

Slowly but surely, my family and I separated.

We are living different lifestyles and raising our children the best way we see fit.

In fact, it has gotten to the point that if my husband and I don't take the initiative to call or visit some of our family, there will be little to no contact.

True family and friends will remain by your side regardless of the circumstances. Whether you are down and out or up and coming, they are going to be there for you. You are not going to be in the same company as much, but the love is genuine.

As a Muslim you have to adjust to being excluded. It's only through hear-say we are informed about the parties, dinners and cook-outs that people assumed we didn't want to participate in because we stopped eating pork, stopped smoking and stopped drinking.

Some family members don't even bother to extend an invitation, claiming that the gatherings were spontaneous.

I'm talking about being rejected and excluded by some of our own family because we are Muslims.

In the beginning its painful, but as you mature in Islam, Allah in the person of Master Fard Muhammad will replace your family with believers and the pain will start to heal.

Family is important, but most of all learning how to stay put and be at peace with yourself is the ultimate test.

Coming into Islam will be challenging. You are going to be tested by the Muslims. Believers in the faith are just like your family.

The Bible says that we will be tried for His name sake and the Holy Qur'an teaches us that our belief will be tested at least three times a year.

Early on, in the teachings, I was excited and started hanging out with believers, engaging in activities, conversations and behavior that was inappropriate.

I didn't back slide into the world, but I stepped out of character.

I was not studying the way that I should have studied, with only have myself to blame.

I took my focus off Allah and His Messenger. I focused on irrelevant things and almost got burned.

Our Messenger warned us that playing with Islam is like playing with fire and if you play with Allah's truth you will get burned.

For a while, I was "malsi". I had my Islam backwards and was not following the best of examples when it came to this teaching.

Dealing with people you are going to have to endure envy, jealousy, mess-makers, back-biters and people will disappoint you greatly.

You will see the hypocrisy going on, not only in other peoples' lives, but your own as well.

Some people are necessary evils and examples of what not to do when you are STRIVING to live upright.

We have to make Allah and His Messenger THE focal point in our lives or we will get caught up in the worst way.

My pregnancy was the best thing that happened to me. This was a peaceful time in my life where most of my time was spent at home.

I bonded with the unborn god growing inside me and the Supreme God, Allah in the person of Master Fard Muhammad.

Like the child that use to chase my older siblings around trying to catch up with them to participate in the fun in games, I stopped participating in activities that were leading me astray from Allah and His Messenger.

Pakistani Muslim View of Messenger's Teachings BACKS MESSENGER'S LONG TIME CHARGE THAT WHITE WORLD IS EVIL BY NATURE

BY
ABDUL BASIT NAEEM

Reprinted from May 5, 1967 edition of Muhammad Speaks Newspaper

Our people in the Eastern" (i.e ; "Orthodox") Muslim world simply do not realize that , had it not been for the West's wanton exploitation and total usurpation of our vast material resources in the days of old (when the various European nations ruled most of Asia and Africa). We would not have to envy or beg of the "benevolent Big Brother" today for food or other aid.

THE "EASTERN" Muslims fail to fathom that without our own past weaknesses, which permitted the Europeans to penetrate our peaceful lands and slowly put systematically dispossess us of our wherewithal and even cause inestimable harm to our mental capacities — we would not find ourselves desperate or needy of economic support from others.

As it stands now, there isn't a territory of the righteous on earth which the "beasts" haven't invaded which consequently doesn't bear the ugly tell-tale marks of their "presence."

There isn't a community of our people where the white colonists' notorious divide -and - rule" dogma has not gnawed at or substantially destroyed the very foundations of its original moral and social structure.

There isn't a spot on this planet where the unsightly "weeds" (seeds of the wicked) have not somehow found a way to take roots.

LET US examine the matter closely: Just how did the white (Euro - American) world achieve its present "greatness"? Certainly the white races were not always as rich or powerful as they are today. Certainly they did not come into their fortunes through hard work or sheer good luck. Nor did they reach their reach their high plateau of prosperity via fair and ethical trade practices or through strict adherence to pious Judeo - Christian traditions. The answer is simple and obvious: The Europeans acquired their affluence by colonizing much of Africa and Asia as well as the Americas. The U.S.A., in turn, attained its astounding material success by driving off its first and original citizens, i.e., the red - skinned Indians, to concentration camps (otherwise known as "reservations") and through the use of 400 years of free (slave) labor. THE SLAVES — millions of them — were "indispensable: "They were brought in from their African homeland to clear America's snake - infested swamps, to dig irrigation ditches and canals, to plant and harvest corn and cotton, to build roads and shelters and for generally carrying out the white slave masters' other wishes. Without this unprecedented and largely gratis supply of manpower, the so-called "pioneers" or "founding fathers" of this country could not have gained a head start or amassed the fantastic fortunes their descendants and heirs boast of and enjoy. The mainstream of the U.S.A., of course, to this day remains infected with old "new world" viruses, such as inequality between man and man. The 22 million black "nephews and nieces of Uncle Sam" (American so -called "Negroes") are by no means considered or treated as equals of white "Great Society" member; nor are they allowed to exercise civil right identical to those of the former slave masters' children. ONE CAN easily deduce that the West has excelled and continues to excel the East mainly in the realms of fire power and human oppression. The Europeans are, indeed, as they have always been, great inventors of lethal hardware. Their cousins on this side of the Atlantic, on the other hand, are, by their admission the world's leading dealers in devices of destruction and death. Together with that other white monster of military might — the U.S.S.R. — they constitute the most serious continual threat to the world of peace, righteousness (ISLAM) and true human progress. Which only proves what the great U.S. Muslim leader,

Abdul Basit Naeem
Pakistani Muslim

Honorable Elijah Muhammad,, has always preached and I have only in recent years learned from him: whites are, by nature, a race of mischief - mongers and evil -doers. That is to say, they are nothing but the real DEVILS.

upon that SAME ENEMY for our very food! The same enemy that still feeds us Christianity. Remember the Christians? They are the ones who captured us and forced our ancestors into physical slavery. Now we are captured by mental slavery. Imagine, ... someone beating, raping, robbing, murdering you and your children, taking your land and possessions, ... and then, ... offering you a god and religion ... AND YOU ACCEPTING IT! The Messenger stated that anyone or group that accepted this kind of treatment is simply ... INSANE!

When we were slaves, many times the slave master would send the horse and 'buck board' to drive us out into the field, ... now under the devils mental slavery, we drive ourselves to the field, ... IN VEHICLES THAT WE OWE TOO MUCH MONEY TO KEEP. Now we are afraid our self driven 'buck board' will be REPOSSESSED by the SAME DEVIL WHO CAPTURED,

I will never be lonely

I realize, now that Allah was preparing me, through out my life time, to live the life of a Righteous Muslim.

The good, bad, ugly and every thing in between was molding me to embrace the teachings when I was ripe.

The Messenger of Allah taught us NOT TO force ourselves on people and into places where we are not wanted.

Messenger Muhammad wanted the believers to be united and have genuine Sisterhood and Brotherhood in the teachings, and not be a part of cliques.

We are grateful to the person who introduces us to the life-giving teachings of the Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad, but we are not obligated to them for the rest of our lives.

We will fall default in our duty to Allah if we don't bear witness and share this information with people.

The duty of the civilize is to teach the uncivilized.

My objective every morning when I rise is to please Allah so that He can bless and smile upon me. Everything else will fall in place or fall off.

The believers are brethren so, make peace between your brethren, and keep your duty to Allah that mercy may be had on you.

Let Allah be the Judge wherein we differ.

The Brotherhood, Sisterhood and congregating with believers is essential, but just like family. Many believers will drift away.

As long as they don't turn hypocrite (stop believing in Allah in the person of Master Fard Muhammad and His Messenger, Elijah Muhammad) or change the teachings, then its okay with me.

I accepted the fact that I will be alone on many occasions.

There is a difference between being alone and being lonely.

The Holy Qur'an reminds us that "Only Allah is your Friend and His Messenger and those who believe..." "Now surely the friends of Allah, they have no fear nor do they grieve".

With Allah as a friend and His Messenger as a teacher and guide in my life, I will never be lonely.

MURDERED, ROBBED AND TRICKED US IN THE PAST, PRESENT AND WILL CONTINUE TO DO SO IN THE FUTURE! We even have our own alarm clocks to wake us up, those who want to be on time. Ask yourselves, DOES THIS MAKE ANY SENSE?

For those who may be offended by The Messenger's teaching of the white race being THE DEVIL, TAKE A MOMENT, ... LOOK UP THE WORD DEVIL in the dictionary and on the internet (don't just look in one place, get multiple opinions) then, ask yourselves, what people does this definition fit?

Also look up the word IMP, which The Messenger used many times to describe the toadies and fawners and uncle toms among our people, who aid the devil in torment against Black people. For the Muslims, 20:102 The Holy Qur'an Muhammad Ali Translation.

The Messenger Of Allah states, "A good and true Muslim, according to the Holy Qur'an and the teachings of Almighty God Allah to me, will NOT take ANYTHING to do or show SYMPATHY ... of love for a HYPOCRITE THOUGH THEY MAY BE THEIR OWN NEAR OF KIN. Their parents, their sisters, their brothers, ... and their own children."

"This is taught in the Holy Qur'an and also taught in the Bible by Jesus, wherein that he says, in Matthew ... 'that IF you would be MY disciple, then you must first hate your mother, brother, sister and your own beloved ones, and pick up your cross and come follow me!' Jesus taught his disciples and the world, to even HATE those that did not believe in Almighty God Allah and he as His Messenger. And to KEEP AWAY FROM THEM and not even to take them for friends.

The same goes for the Holy Qur'an. The Holy Qur'an teaches us AGAINST even defending a disbeliever or hypocrite, for they are the FRIENDS of the devil and not the friends of God, nor The Messenger, nor those who follow

www.muhammadspeaks.com

A Person Who Eats Like an Animal cannot retain a Beautiful Appearance

Reprinted from the May 5, 1967 Edition of Muhammad Speaks

By Messenger Elijah Muhammad

In order to lengthen our lives, we must begin with what we put in us that retains life. Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom praises are due forever, comes to prolong the lives of the believers.

THERE IS NOT a shadow of a doubt that he (Allah) has taken the proper steps to give us more life in order to have and enjoy the pleasures of life.

He (Allah) said what we eat keeps us here, and the same will take us away. Suppose we ate one -half pound of food a day. At the end of 365 days, we would have eaten 182 1/2 pound of food per year.

BUT WE EAT more than this amount. For instance, if we live 50 years, we would eat 50 times this much food, at a half pound of food a day. If we saw 9,000 pounds of raw food piled up before us to consume, we would think that this would be a lot of food to go through our bodies. And we would think that it probably would wear us out to eat that much food in our life time, although we eat tons of food in our life time.

AND IF THIS food is not the proper food to eat, it will wear away our body and cut short three score and 10 years of our lives. On the average, our people are living around 62 years. This is a very short life to live on an earth that has been here trillions of years. And yet, the average of us cannot live 100 years under the present system of civilization of wickedness.

MASTER FARD Muhammad, to Whom praises are due forever, comes to prolong our lives, not to shorten them, by correcting our eating habits to one meal a day instead of three, and by teaching us to eat the proper foods that will not destroy us or shorten our lives to less than 100 years. His (Allah's) teaching us to eat better food and to cut our eating from three and four times a day to once a day will certainly prolong our lives and increase our beautiful appearance.

A PERSON WHO eats like an animal - three or four times a day and all between meals — cannot retain a beautiful appearance. Eating three times a day and all between meals removes the body the body's attractiveness in many ways. We eat meat, but yet meat is not good for us. It becomes a habitual tool. This type of food poisons the blood and goes into the flesh and cannot help but transform and destroy the surface of the flesh.

TAKE, FOR example, a new born baby. Many times its beauty last for just a short while and then pass away with its growth. Even in our late twenties and early thirties — because of the life that we live and the frequent eating of poison food — our beautiful appearance begins to pass from us so rapidly, until by our forties and fifties it is nearly completely gone. Let us eat one meal a day and try getting the best food that we can to eat — vegetables, fruits, pure fresh milk, and pure whole wheat bread, that has been cooked slowly, twice. Doing this will help us to live longer and retain our beautiful appearance much longer.

DO NOT GET into the habit (or if you are already in the habit, stop it) of eating a lot of greasy foods. Regardless of whether the grease is from animal flesh or not, our bodies, by nature, are not made to digest and control grease or lots of fats. Thousands of minor ailments disappear from us by eating the proper food and at the proper time — one meal a day. He (Allah) teaches us never to eat unless we are hungry. Eating when we are not hungry causes these minor ailments. We are forcing the body to digest food before it is calling for this food.

Honorable Elijah Muhammad
MESSENGER OF ALLAH

TAKE THE HOG and the dog — they do not live very long because they eat daily and nightly. The present civilization is an enemy to righteousness.

Researchers say hospital patients routinely given unnecessary drugs

A study, published in May 27, 2009 issue of The Journal of the American Medical Association, says patients are routinely given unnecessary drugs that promote the growth of different types of bacteria that can cause pneumonia.

The drugs — including Nexium, Prilosec and Prevacid — are often recommended for intensive-care patients to prevent stress ulcers and in recent years they have been given to many other hospital patients, including a growing number of hospital patients who are routinely given drugs to prevent acid reflux.

Acid reflux is a condition, usually caused by over-eating, in which food or liquid travels backwards from the stomach to the esophagus (the tube from the mouth to the stomach).

Experts estimate that up to 70 percent of inpatients now receive acid-suppressive drugs during a hospital stay.

"I noticed that there were a lot of patients being placed on these for prophylactic purposes, and I thought that was curious, because they are not currently recommended for patients who aren't at high risk for stress ulcers," said the study's lead author, Dr. Shoshana J. Herzig.

The study analyzed 63,878 admissions to one hospital from Jan. 1, 2004, to Dec. 31, 2007. All of the records analyzed belonged to adults hospitalized for three days or more.

Acid-suppressive drugs were ordered for just over half of the patients.

Among patients who received the drugs, about 5% percent developed pneumonia in the hospital — more than double the 2 percent who had not been given the drugs.

After adjusting the figures to account for the fact that recipients of the drugs may have been sicker to begin with, the researchers determined that patients treated with acid-reflux drugs faced a 30 percent increase in pneumonia risk over patients who were not.

Following How to Eat to Live will Save your Life

By
Brother David Muhammad

Brother David Muhammad

CINCINNATI, Ohio--In the name of Allah who came in the person of Master Fard Muhammad. We thank Him for raising in our midst a divine leader teacher and guide in The person of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad the Messenger of Allah (pbuh)

Messenger Elijah Muhammad said in How to Eat to Live Book 2 page 155, "Our enemies have resorted to drugs to prolong life, due to the fact that they do not want to accept the right way of God to prolong life over their commercial desire".

Messenger Muhammad taught us you can't depend on the devil (whiteman) to prolong life; because by nature he's the destroyer of life. He gives us processed foods, genetically engineered foods, foods that can't be found in nature.

Messenger Muhammad taught us that the whiteman is an experimenting god. "He experiments on the heavens, the earth and on everything in the biosphere and that includes food.. The whiteman does not care what his genetically engineered food does to us as long as he can make money at the expense of our health.

I was watching one of the devil's medical shows on television, and the doctor's patient had a bowel problem. The doctor prescribed cigarettes to correct the bowel infection and the patient said, "But aren't cigarettes addictive, and won't they kill me?"

The doctor said, "Any pill I could prescribe to you is addictive and could kill you so what's the difference?"

After seeing that all I could do was shake my head and say, "All praise is due to Allah for the Honorable Elijah Muhammad!"

We must study and research what long term effects this devil-engineered food has on our bodies.

The whiteman KNOWS what long term effects this food has on us and a few devils are leaking this information out to the public.

The Messenger of Allah warned us for 40 public years of these things, but since the devil (whiteman) didn't put his stamp of approval on it, the Messenger's warnings fell on deaf ears.

Now the black man and woman in America are the unhealthiest people on the planet. We depend on drugs from the devil to aid us to prolong life when his food is the cause of us needing drugs in the first place.

The Bible is right when it says my people are destroyed from the lack of knowledge.

We are a lazy people who are hard to lead in the right direction and easy to lead in the wrong direction; so taught Messenger Muhammad.

But now we are responsible for our health. We have the teachings of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad and the internet at our finger tips.

There is no reason we should be suffering from all of our health problems except from sheer laziness.

Messenger Muhammad teaches us that laziness is one of our biggest enemies along with fear, a fear that we will die if we give up meat, fast or eat one meal a day.

The laziness comes from a lack of dedication to enjoy better health.

The whiteman is the devil and always will be the devil, so he won't change.

We can expect him to keep doing the things he's doing. He will poison the atmosphere; he will poison the ground and everything on the planet.

But following How to Eat to Live, as taught by Messenger Muhammad, helps us get around some of the traps this devil has laid for us.

Allah, Who came in the person of Master Fard Muhammad, gave us a Messenger to guide us to the right path.

There is no need for us to look for another to lead teaches and guide us, so stop looking for another. Messenger Elijah Muhammad gave us everything needed to be successful.

Follow How to Eat To Live books 1& 2 they will save your life as they did mine.

As Salaam Alaikum

Medical bills play a role in 62% of bankruptcies, study says

A study by Harvard researchers found that medical bills, plus related problems such as lost wages for the ill and their care givers, contributed to 62% of all bankruptcies filed in 2007.

According to the study, most people who filed medical-related bankruptcies "were solidly middle class before financial disaster hit."

Two-thirds were homeowners, and most had gone to college. The study does not suggest that medical expenses were the sole cause for these bankruptcies, but it does identify them as a contributing factor.

The study found that hospital bills were the largest expense for about half the families that filed health-related bankruptcies.

Political experts predicted that President Obama would use this study to push for his infamous "Health Care Reform" plan.

As always, the political system of America has found pitiful Temporary Solution to a serious problem. "Cut the cost of health care to make it more affordable", while Messenger Elijah Muhammad gave us the PERMANENT SOLUTION TO Health Care Problems.

First, The Messenger pointed out to us that "the doctor falls victim of the same sickness and the same diseases as his patients and his span of life is the same as his patients."

The Messenger taught, "IF THE MEDICAL DOCTORS and the theologian teachers and scientists of chemicals, are indulging and are not successful expanding their own lives in what they are offering to us to eat and drink, then why should we follow their way of life?"

Next, Messenger Elijah Muhammad said, "The fact is the body of man was not to be drugged. This white man brought all this "stuff" on us, Now the 'thing' is catching up with him with what his own hands have produced. And they are willing to confess that these things are not good for us. They are turning down much of their medication, which is absolutely poison and detrimental to us.

Finally, the Messenger said, "The great trouble the people have trying to keep in good health is the enemy who is poisoning food and drinks.

HOW CAN people enjoy good health while eating poison deliberately prepared and put into their food and drinks to shorten their lives?

It is very hard to find anything like pure food and drinks which you can eat and drink without feeling that they are going to make you sick or kill you.

TAKING long intervals between eating meals makes it better for you, because long intervals between meals and drinks give the poison in the body time to weaken before a new addition of poisonous food and drinks.

They do not mind hiding their intention to use poison, for they know that it will have an effect upon your body and your enjoyment of good health.

YOU could not imagine a more wicked thing to do than for someone to take a good food for innocent people — from the cradle to old age — and poison it so that the eater and the drinker cannot enjoy good health and will be at the hospital doorstep where they will be denied immediate service (especially so-called Negroes).

I have, for years, advised you on the South Side here in Chicago to let us unit and build a hospital large enough to take care of our sick, because they surely will be sick, as long as they live in a world that specializes on how to make one sick (sometimes just for commercial purposes, so doctors can make more money and so undertakers can make more money).

MORE white and Black scientists agree that America is a very poisonous place to live today. The poisoning of food and drinks is done deliberately and there's no help coming from the government to stop such demonic, evil freedom to maim and destroy life.

Our only hope for survival is in Allah, Who has power over the evil plans of the devil."

"Thanks to the coming of Allah in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, if we obey what He has given to us in the way of proper foods and the proper time to partake of these foods, we will never be sick or have to pay hundreds, thousands and millions of dollars for doctor bills and hospitalization."

Thinking about becoming a vegetarian?

Consider the following when it comes to nutrition:

- Contrary to what many people believe, any normal variety of plant foods provides enough protein for the body's needs, and most meat-eaters are consuming more protein than the body needs. A diet focused on beans, whole grains and vegetables provides adequate amounts of protein
- Women should make sure they are getting enough iron, which is plentiful in whole grains, beans and fruits. Navy Beans are an excellent source of iron.
- Calcium also is easy to find in a vegetarian diet. Navy beans have lots of calcium, and calcium can also be added into the diet through juices, and cereals fortified with it.

Truth Hurts

By Messenger Elijah Muhammad

This article is a compilation of writings for books by Messenger Elijah Muhammad, published prior to 1975

We have thousands of the darker people joining Islam all over the earth, but a very few whites accept Islam. The door of Islam has never been open to everyone who desired to accept it, but today it is different. The door of this religion is now being closed against the white race which has repeatedly rejected Islam, made mockery of it, persecuted and killed the Prophets and the believers (the followers), hid and concealed the truth of it and its God, Allah, who is the God of the Universe, and Islam, His only religion.

They follow the poor teacher of Islam seeking a way or an excuse to kill him. They put spies (stool pigeons) on him to try to find a way to charge him with something other than the truth in order to do him evil for the truth's sake that he teaches.

As David says in his Psalms 94:20: "Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?" The poor lost-found members of the Tribe of Shabazz (nicknamed "Negroes" by their slave-masters) can well understand that they are the victims of such a frame-up against them throughout America when they seek truth, love and unity among themselves. The white race does not want to see the poor black people of America united in Islam, a religion that is of Allah (God) backed by the spirit and power of God, to unite all of its believers into one nation of brotherhood. It is the only unifying religion known and tried by the races and nations of earth. This the white race knows.

They were offered Islam by Musa (Moses), Jesus, Muhammad and many other prophets, but they rejected it. "And certainly we raised in every nation an Apostle saying serve Allah and shun the devil. So there were others against whom error was due; therefore, travel in the land, then see what was the end of the rejectors" (Holy Qur-an 16:36).

The prophets had delivered to them the message of truth and shown them the right way; but they chose to remain in error (evil doings). This stands true of this people today. They know the truth, and right from wrong but they like wrong or evil better than right; therefore, they are against Islam and its truth. The Holy Qur-an says:

"Surely we have revealed to you as we revealed to Noah and the Prophets after him, and we revealed to Abraham and Ishmael and the Tribes, and Jesus, Job and Jonah, Aaron, Solomon, and we gave to David a scripture. We sent Apostles as the givers of good news and as warners, so that people should not have a plea against Allah after the coming of the Apostles" (4:163, 165). The Messengers of Allah (God) bring good news to the people but if that good news is rejected, therefore, they are warned that bad news will come.

The Christian white world, whose leader and teacher is the Pope of Rome (the Father of the church) claims that Jesus brought a new religion to them. But the scripture of both Bible and Holy Qur-an denies such false charge, and makes Jesus= religion the same as the Prophets' who were before Him. Muhammad was also given the same religion of Jesus and the Prophets before Him.

The Holy Qur-an further says: "Surely those who believe, and those who are Jews, and the Christians, and the Sabians, whoever believes in Allah and the last day and goes, they shall have their reward from their Lord, and there is no fear for them, nor shall they grieve” (2:62).

The religion of Islam is everything that we need for salvation. The poor black man is waking up to this truth and is coming into Islam by the thousands, against the wishes of the whites, because of the love and unity and universal friendship which Islam brings to the believers. This is what the poor black man of America needs more of—TRUE FRIENDS! He gets them in Islam! The white race has and still is trying to keep us from having true friends among our own kind or even among ourselves here in America. Because of the truth of Islam, they are now charging that it fans hate against them.

TRUTHS TO SET YOU FREE

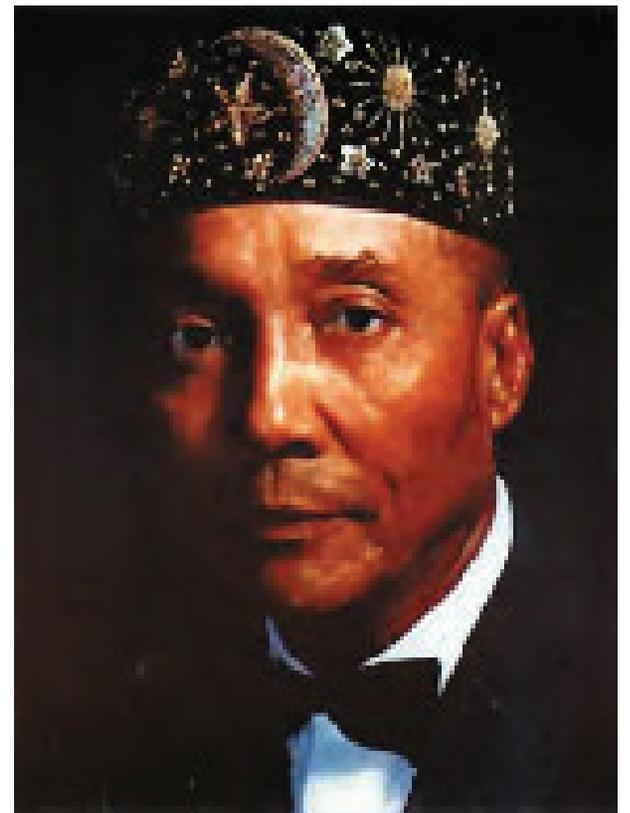

What should you know, what should you do, and what is your place in this change of worlds, governments and people? You have the best offer; better than that of any other human beings who have ever lived.

You have been taught for the past 34 years from the mouth of Almighty God, Allah, through his Messenger that you are the first and the last and that you have been loose in what He (Allah) calls a wilderness — a place of sin and evil doings opposed to a civilization of righteousness and the doings of good. For the past 400 years you have been robbed completely of the knowledge of self and kind and of Almighty god — the Creator and Maker of the heavens and the earth. We are the direct descendants of God, while those who have mistreated us and still do are the direct offspring of a rebellious scientist of God.

A scientist who grafted and made the white man an enemy to us. From the rebellious spirit of their creator, they have deceived, murdered and ruled the righteous, who are of the original Black Nation of the earth. This has been made very clear. Being born and nursed by the enemy of righteousness, you have fallen in love with them.

The history of the life of your fathers reveals an evil, murderous condition that they had to undergo. The treatment you are receiving now and have received should bear enough witness to the truth. Your love for this unlike people and their wealth which they have robbed you of and the majority of your people now makes you want to be one of them and desire to intermarry with such people, while history has recorded them as burning your actual living flesh at the stake out of the law of justice.

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad
ALLAH'S LAST AND GREATEST MESSENGER

We live in a government that has always yielded and sided with the murderers and those who slay us and our people at home and abroad — anywhere the black man may be on the earth. You should realize that your black brother is your black brother wherever he is on the face of the earth.

Day of Decision, Part 2

By

Minister Khalil Rahman Muhammad

Minister Khalil R. Muhammad

PHILADELPHIA, Penn.-- In The Most Holy Name of Allah Who Came To Us In The Person of Master Fard Muhammad to whom all praise is due forever and in the name of His Last And Greatest Messenger The Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad. I greet my Brothers and Sisters in our Nation's greeting words of peace and paradise, As salaam alaikum.

To my wonderful Brothers and Sisters, it is truly wonderful and I am truly blessed to be able to come before you, once again, to share in the wisdom of our divine leader and teacher the Messenger of Allah The Honorable Elijah Muhammad.

We are continuing our text, The Day of Decision, SECTION 2 of The Holy Quran, Al-Naba, Sura (Chapter) 78, The Announcement Verses 31-40.

"Surely for those who do their duty is achievement, Gardens and vineyards, And youth (companions), equals in age, And a pure cup, They hear not therein vain words, nor lying- A reward from thy Lord, a gift sufficient, The Lord of the heavens and the earth and what is between them, the Beneficent, they are not able to address him. The day when the Spirit and the angels stand in ranks, none shall speak except he whom the Beneficent permits and he speaks aright. That is the True Day, so whoever desires may take refuge with his Lord. Truly We warn you of a chastisement near at hand- the day when man will see what his hands have sent before, and the disbeliever will say, O would that I were dust."

These are beautiful words of Allah being spoken to the hypocrites, disbeliever and those who do their duty. These words should give the true believer a calm of joy and a peace. And to the hypocrites and the disbelievers and those who are full of vanity and use vain words and tell lies to the people, these words should set fear in your hearts that Allah is willing and able and is going to deal with you very soon.

In the book, The Fall America, Chapter 59, The Honorable Elijah Muhammad teaches us that, "Thinking that you have a long time to decide is the mistake that people made in the past. Noah's people and Lot's people were the losers for ignoring the announcement from these worthy prophets. They waited, for they thought that what they had was going to continue to be. We here in America do not have to wait and see, for America is folding up under divine chastisement and destruction is taking place before your and my eyes. Also, the Bible and the Holy Quran prophesied of these days and what is going on. These days are the days of judgement of Allah (God) against the wicked."

The Holy Quran (78:3-5) goes on to say, "About which they differ, Nay, they will soon know, Nay, again, they will soon know."

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad taught us (from The Fall of America) that,

"The Day of Decision, We are now living in the time in which we must decide on what we shall do. It is very important that we arrive at a solution, come to a definite agreement. You Black man of America, are holding back your decision. You are waiting because of the people who have brought this Day of Decision to us by their way of rule. Their rule is in the way of injustice. Now the God of Justice is before us, and we must decide upon whether or not we will accept a change of rulers or remain under the present rule that is passing from the scene. We must decide rightly in order to relieve the people of the pressure of injustice. Let our decision be for the benefit of our present and our generations."

Now, I will bring this text to a close by saying, to all of those who stand before the people, in the Name of Allah and His Messenger, and you continue to lie, cheat, steal and use God's holy and righteous name to shield your dirty religion, which is lying, stealing and mastering the original man, I, say again, you better repent and ask Allah and his Messenger to forgive your wicked souls.

Remember The Bible Teaches That The Sins of The Father Shall Fall To The Children! Thank you very much for reading this article. May Master Fard Muhammad continue to Bless you all. Your Brother, Minister Khalil Muhammad, As salaam alaikum.

Truth Hurts the Guilty

Look at your brother in Africa who has been dominated by the Europeans and other white races of the earth. He is fighting for a chance to shake off the shackles of the open enemies, while you here in America profess to be their friends. Are not you ashamed of yourselves, seeking love and intermarriage with them?

Your brother is trying to regain the power of his own country. You are playing the part of a hypocrite to yourself and your kind — wherever they live — by appealing to the murderers to accept you as one of them, as their sons-in-law. What a fool you are making of yourself without the knowledge of self and the time in which you are living.

This is the time that justice has come to you to settle the injustice done to you by your enemies and separate you from such evil people and give you a place somewhere on this earth that you can call your own. But you do not want a place of your own; you want to continue to live in a place with the murderers and crushers. What a silly people you are.

At the same time, he is shooting and killing you in the open eyes of the world, showing that he is your worst enemy and hated you from the very beginning and will always hate you as long as he is a human being made in nature which he is.

The Prophets were, unable from Moses to Muhammad, to reform him into a God-like person to deal justly. He cannot be reformed unless you graft him back into that which he was grafted from. As Jesus said to Nicodemus, "By no means can you see the kingdom of heaven unless you be born again." This refers to the whole Caucasian race. They must be born again. Not just a change, but a change in the very nature of them.

You are lying at their gates and foot steps begging, fighting and bleeding and falling from their blows and gunshots. You are trying to get them to accept you as their equal and as a free person. There is no way that you can settle the price of justice between you and your open enemy but by your entire submission of will to Allah who came in the person of Master

Fard Muhammad; come follow me, your brother Elijah Muhammad.

THE SURE TRUTH

(Taken from Chapter 69 of the Holy Qur'an). What is said there in Chapter 69 of the Holy Qur'an is so true and is being fulfilled in this day and time. 2 This Chapter is warning the people in the time of the Resurrection of the mentally dead of what happened in the histories of former people who were doomed to destruction and how they reacted to the truth and warning and how they called the truth of their approaching doom a lie. This Chapter is warning the people of the calamities that are now besetting America and Europe; the sure truth that they are heading for their doom like Ad and Thamud who gave the truth a lie and were overtaken by Allah's Judgment of a violent wind roaring seven days and eight nights. This was the kind of destruction that Allah destroyed them with. 3 The Chapter also mentions of the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah how these cities were overthrown by earthquakes and unto this day they have not been rebuilt. Pharaoh who opposed the Truth and called it a lie suffered the Judgment of Allah (drowning in the Red Sea). The Black Man in America is now suffering under the falsehood of his enemies while truth is being sounded in his ears. He sees the evidence of it with his eyes: yet he would like it a lie. The main warning of the Holy Qur'an to those who take the truth for a lie and the lie for the truth is that they are subject to the same type of Judgment that these former opponents of Allah were subjected to. 4 We are now witnessing the truth being spread all over the continent of America and jumping the borders and spreading around the earth. Allah is backing up His Coming and Presence to defend the horrible plight of the so-called American Negro. There is no plainer truth that could ever come to both white and Black than what Allah, in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad to Whom praises are due forever, has delivered to me whom He chose to deliver this Message of Truth. The enemy is ever seeking a way to oppose the truth and take you and me to their doom if we are foolish enough to give a lie to the truth. 5 Everything mentioned in the Bible and Holy Qur'an such as plagues and judgments taking

Shell Oil being sued for Murder and abuse against Black people

Nigerians are suing Shell Oil for the 1995 executions of Ken Saro-Wiwa, a renowned writer and activist, and eight other leaders of a movement that protested environmental destruction and abuses against the Ogoni, people in the Niger Delta.

Shell Oil, Royal Dutch Petroleum is also being sued for the torture, detention and exile of Saro-Wiwa's brother, Owens Wiwa, and violent attacks on other black people in the country.

Nigeria is the most populous country in Africa and the eighth most populous country in the world.

With a population of over 150 million, it is the most populous Black country in the world.

On the 10th of November, 1995, the government of Nigeria executed Ken Saro-Wiwa.

Ken Saro-Wiwa's crime was his opposition to the policies of the Nigerian government and Shell Oil Co.

Saro-Wiwa was a vocal, non-violent defender of the Black people who number about half a million in the oil-rich Niger River delta region. He was also an Ogoni and a popular newspaper columnist, the author of several books and the writer / producer of a popular Nigerian television program, "Basi and Company." He had also been a university teacher and a regional government official.

In 1990, Saro-Wiwa started the Movement for the Survival of the Ogoni People (MOSOP). Within three years, the movement mobilized widespread support against severe ecological conditions in the region.

Although the oil industry had pumped billions of barrels of oil from Nigeria, ordinary people were no better off — in fact, as Saro-Wiwa argued, their lives were much worse as a result.

In response to massive non-violent protests, Shell Oil Co. suspended operations in the immediate Ogoni land region in 1993. However, Saro-Wiwa continued to hold the oil company responsible for "ecological war" and for organizing, arming and providing intelligence to Nigerian military units which, he said, were conducting a "dirty war" against the Ogoni people.

After many overnight detentions and run-ins with Nigerian officials, Saro-Wiwa was arrested in 1994 and charged with the murders of four pro-government Ogoni leaders.

Since the murders were committed when Saro-Wiwa was in police custody in a distant town, place in ancient times of the Bible and Holy Qur'an against the opponents of Allah is to warn you and me that the same thing is coming upon America and Europe but America is No. 1 (first). This is the truth that God has given to me to warn you. He (Allah) is Sufficient to back up His Own Words. 6 The cold and violent wind blowing for seven days and eight nights to destroy an enemy people of Allah; the earthquakes taking place, overthrowing cities and the destruction of Pharaoh and his army are to warn you and me that the same thing will take place here in America and is now going on (This is the sure truth). The evidence of this sure truth that I, Elijah Muhammad, am preaching is that America is in for every known destruction that plagued the people of old. 7 As the Bible teaches us (symbolically), God says He will use every one of His arrows against the wicked world today. When a man says he will shoot all of his ammunition to try to kill you, you want to know how much ammunition he has to shoot. I say plenty; for Allah has no such thing as a limitation to what and how He can destroy since all the powers of heavens and earth are within His Hands. The forces of nature (which He is using and will continue to use) are things that we have no defense against. I say, Black Man, believe in Allah and come follow me.

BEING ASHAMED OF YOUR OWN GOD

Because of Allah coming to us in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, teaching us that glorious, much prophesied Truth that will put us, the Black onceslaves of white America, into heaven while we live, should we be so foolish to reject that Truth which as been brought to us to take us out of this condition of hell (subjected to white Americans); should we be ashamed to confess the Truth publicly before our ever open enemies of both the Truth and of the Black Man or deny the Name of Allah, Who Came in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, To Whom Praises are Due forever, for the non-love and friendship of an evil people who were made by nature to hate and mistreat other Black people of the earth, we should be condemned to hell-fire along with the enemies of God.

To be ashamed to confess the God of our salvation makes us unworthy of that God's help and salvation which He has brought to us. Some of us, in the presence of white people, will deny our salvation while the white people do not, by any means, deny their hatred of the Black Man or their plans and their actions of robbery and death to the Black Man.

The white people follow the nature in which they were made, but you do not follow the nature in which you were created (righteousness and truth).

There are many Black educators, scholars, and scientists who try to keep the false friendship of white people. They dare not accept the Name of God which shall live.

Being ashamed of your own God and your own self before this evil world is like eating fire.

To know the truth of the Presence of the God of Truth and that His presence is the Salvation of the Lost and Found people of America is to know your life and its happiness.

Truth is in favor of you and me; for the truth of our enemies whom we have been serving here in the U.S.A. for over 400 years (whom we did not know to be our enemies by nature) is the truth that the Black Man must have knowledge of to be able to keep from falling into the deceiving traps that are being laid by our enemies to catch us in their way which is opposed to the way of righteous of whom we are members.

THE ARCH-DECEIVER. We are warned throughout the Bible and Holy Qur'an to shun this deceiver if we are members of the Black Nation (the righteous). There is nothing that is left of the truth of these people that God has not made manifest. And I am teaching you daily of this people. There are some Black Americans who will, after knowledge, sympathize with the arch-deceiver (the devil) for the sake of advantage. Even some of our highly educated people will accept speaking in defense of this arch enemy of ours for the sake of trying to gain higher places with the arch-deceiver. And some of them will tell me and the believers of Islam that they do not believe in any religion nor in any God of religion. The Bible foretold that this kind of talk against the truth would come in the last days; that this fool will say in his heart "there is no God." This prophecy is now being fulfilled among even our most educated class of people. You cannot see the hereafter unless you believe in righteousness and unless you are a submissive one to the God and Author of righteousness because righteousness is the type of world that we will have to live under after the destruction of this evil and deceitful world.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH. There are "diehards" in the Christian church. Slowly but surely the Spirit of Allah is making manifest to the Black Man that the church and its religion called Christianity is the chain that binds the Black Man in mental slavery (seeking salvation where there is none) and thinking that he must die first to get to heaven. This is really a misunderstanding because heaven is a condition of life and not a special place. Heaven is enjoying peace of mind and contentment with the God of

And HATE THE MESSENGER and THOSE WHO ARE WITH The Messenger. This is true and is GOING ON AT THIS VERY MINUTE. This is the judgment of this world."

These, "Clouds Without Water" ... these violent deceivers, ... these hypocrites speak in derogatory manner about The Most Honorable Elijah

Muhammad (peace be upon him) and His followers. Right before your eyes you see them brought to shame and disgrace. Allah makes them live in despair and want, grief and sorrow until claimed by the earth.

"The Hypocrites, TURNING AGAINST ALLAH AND HIS MESSENGER ... And even TEACHING OTHERS TO DO THE SAME. Charging evil and ugly things against The Messenger and those who is WITH Him, is one of the most wickedness things that you could even dream of and even go around ARMED to try to even do BODILY HARM TO THE MESSENGER AND HIS FOLLOWERS. Even after they exhaust their wicked tongues and their wicked language against The Messenger and His followers, they then turn to resort to even trying to do evil AGAINST THE MESSENGER AND HIS FOLLOWERS with their hands and with other instruments of weapons."

"... You never know as the Holy Qur'an say to The Messenger, among the wives and among your children there is an enemy for you ... and be aware of them, but they are NEVER KNOWN until Allah Himself makes them manifest." "Clouds they are without water." (Jude 12) The Messenger comments, "A Cloud without water, these are people without truth and the spirit of Allah in them." "... carried about of winds;" The Messenger comments, "Winds here mean other propaganda, talks of evil-plannings against the believing Muslims and The Messenger of Truth to them. They are carried away with that kind of talk. ... against The Messenger of God and His followers. It says here," "Trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots.."

The Messenger stated that they were once dead and Allah and His Messenger taught them the truth and wisdom. Then they attempted to take The Messenger's place and even Allah's place. They are doomed, these "Clouds Without Water" going around lying, telling the people that they are taking the place of The Messenger.

The Messenger taught us that God does not choose two or three Messengers at one time. He does not choose another Messenger for a long time. "You will not be here when Allah chooses another one."

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad (peace be upon him) was the ONLY one, made of the right material, so said Almighty God Allah, that was chosen for this terrible job of raising the so-called Negro. The Messenger was raised from among us and was rejected by the majority of Blacks in the United States. For 44 long years ... He toiled and did EVERYTHING ASKED OF Him by Allah.

With the golden opportunity to be TRULY FREE, spiritually, financially, morally, mentally, physically and owners of OUR OWN LAND, we GAVE IT ALL UP for long blond hair, blue eyes and lasting torment with our very able tormentors! As they scream, holler, writhe and contort as they fall and burn for eternity, we can TRY to smile as we BURN ALONG SIDE THEM, FOOLS AND CLOWNS TO THE VERY END. A just chastisement from Almighty God Allah to Clouds Without Water!

the righteous and the Nation of the righteous. It can be here in America, in the isles of the Pacific or on the continents of Asia and Africa. But it is only a condition of life. Black Christian believers are warned in the Bible in the 18th Chapter of Revelation (last book) to come out of her. "Her" means the way and belief of the white race and the so-called Christian religion) that we be not partakers with them in the Divine plagues of God upon her (U.S.A.). This is the religion that the prophets prophesied to you that the enemy will deceive you with. Christianity is not the teachings of Jesus. Their theologians and religious scientists will agree with us in a showdown that it was not the religion of Jesus; for the religion of Jesus was Islam as it was the religion of Moses and all the prophets of God. The Holy Qur'an teaches us that the prophets' religion was none other than Islam, the religion of Truth, Freedom, Justice, and Equality. This, the Christians preach with their mouths, but they do not practice Truth, Freedom, Justice, and Equality with us, the Black people. Since knowledge of them, we do not want to follow them in any religion because they are not by nature made to lead people into righteousness.

Revolution between white and Black is due to the work of Allah and His Truth among the Black people of America. Never before in all your life have you seen the white man so anxious to keep the Black man near to him in his society and especially in Christianity, the great false, deceiving religion. He even offers to bribe any Black people of note, but for accepting his invitation and high places, they are reduced by a sudden fall to the level of disgrace and shame.

LEADERS. We, the Black Nation, today with the knowledge of the truth cannot accept leaders made and offered to us for our guidance. I warn each of you to no more accept the white man's made or chosen leaders for you.

This is what has kept us bound in the mental chains of slavery since the days of slavery. Our leaders are by their choice. These kind of leaders are Uncle Toms who are licking the boots of the white man for his pleasure and wealth regardless of what happens to you and me; for they care not.

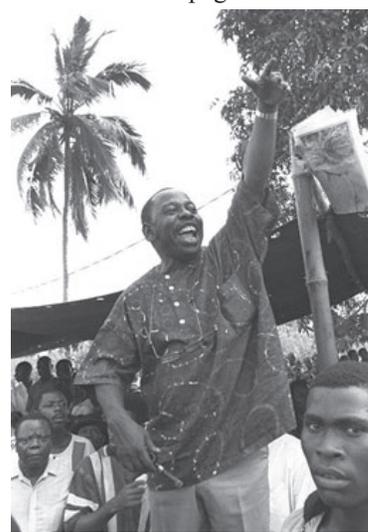

ABRAHAM'S PROPHECY. But, I ask you to remember this: in the parable in the Bible of the rich man and Lazarus — which means none other than the white and Black people of America — the rich man died deprived of authority and wealth.

In the anguish of the torment of his loss of wealth and power, the parable refers to the rich man as being in hell. And in this condition, the beggar (Lazarus) saw no hope in begging that once rich man any longer for some of his sumptuous food. Then he turned to go for self (Abraham's). The prophecy which Abraham was the recipient of only means that after 400 years of our enslavement, all these things are coming to pass.

I ask you to be in time and accept the truth and not mix up the truth with falsehood while you know it for the sake of untrue friendship.

and since no real defense was permitted, the trial was universally considered to be an injustice.

Saro-Wiwa told the media: "I was found guilty even before I was tried."

In spite of Brother Saro-Wiwa last words: "Lord, take my soul, but the struggle continues." very little has improved in the Niger delta.

Rusted pipelines are still spilling crude oil. Cleanup rarely happens. Most fish and wildlife are long gone and even subsistence agriculture is impossible in many areas. Enormous flares of natural gas still light up villages and fields day and night. The army, still known as the "kill-and-gos," randomly arrests dissidents and ruthlessly destroys whole villages when unrest emerges.

The outrage of internationally known figures helped push Shell Oil company to offer some kind of restitution to the people of Nigeria. Nelson Mandela, then president of South Africa, who called the execution a "heinous act." US President Bill Clinton said it flouted "even the most basic international norms and universal standards of human rights." Prime Minister John Major described events as "a fraudulent trial, a bad verdict, an unjust sentence," which, he said,

RHODE ISLAND—In the name of Allah, who came in the person of Master Fard Muhammad. The one true and living God for the Black Man and Woman. We can never thank him enough for raising up from among us, the Honorable Elijah Muhammad, the Last and Greatest Messenger of Allah. As-Salaam-Alaikum.

Most of us were not born in the Nation. We are hard-hearted, hardheaded, stiff-necked and rebellious. We can see the truth, but we reject it.

It couldn't be the way the Muslims said, because if it were, then the way we looked at the world would be upset. Not upset but flipped over.

Our comforts of sport and play would be gone. We aren't eating right. We aren't praying right. And we certainly do not know who the devil really is.

The way we look at the world can be seen by the way we look at one person: Jesus Christ.

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad called Jesus Christ the most misunderstood and misrepresented man of all time. And of course, he is right.

Some of us believe that Jesus is The God, or The Son of Man. But a document by the Messenger entitled "The True History of Jesus" presents a different picture. It asks the question "how could something that is Flesh and blood be conceived by something that is a spirit?"

In other words it questions the 'immaculate conception'. It paints a situation where Mary and Joseph wanted to get married, but this is stopped by Mary's father. When the father is called away Mary calls Joseph to protect her. It is during this time that Jesus is conceived.

There is no mystery here. Jesus is conceived from the union of a man and woman and he was born just like anyone else. There is no need to think that his conception requires a great leap of faith.

An angel tells a prophetess who tells Joseph that this child was in the Holy Qur'an and would be a great Prophet. We need to keep things real. We need to realize that the devils tell us these lies to keep us depended on them for information.

We don't think for ourselves. And we certainly don't think of others who have told us the truth before like the Honorable Elijah Muhammad or Maser Fard Muhammad. These are the ones we should think of when we have nagging questions.

Another belief that the "True History" looks at is the Holy trinity. Here you have Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

It doesn't take an Islamic scholar to realize that this is Polytheism or the belief in more than one God.

First, how can God who is complete by himself beget a son. And that son is a God? That makes 2 and the notion of a Holy Spirit makes three. How can this be? It can't. It is impossible!

Or it is possible in a pagan religion But as followers of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad we believe in one God, Allah, who came in the person of Master Fard Muhammad. The one true and living God for the Black Man and Woman. The one God who came to save us. The one God who can deliver us to heaven at once. There is no mysterious spook God here who lives in space somewhere that we call heaven. You Christian Brothers and Sisters, do you really believe that?

Another topic that "True History" looks at is Jesus' death. This is documented in the Bible as a crucifixion. Islamic scholars assert that Christ never died on the cross. He was removed from the cross before death and was able to continue his ministry in Kashmir where he subsequently died.

Although their arguments are persuasive the truth can only be found in the True History of Jesus.

There it asserts that Jesus was preaching in front of an empty Jewish store. There was a bounty on his head: one sum if he was brought in alive and a larger one if he was brought in dead.

Two police officers were dispatched to the store to break up the meeting. They arrived at the same time and they both touched Jesus. Jesus was able to resolve which officer touched him first and went with that one.

Before they went to the authorities the officer persuaded Jesus to let him kill him because it would mean more money for him and his family.

So with his arms outstretched and against the walls of the boarded up store he allowed the officer to stab him ending his life. We have here a man who was born of the flesh and who died in the flesh. This is not a God. This man is a prophet.

We need to read "The True History of Jesus". It is typical of articles that are on the Muhammad Speaks website. They present the unaltered words of the Messenger from many sources: audio tapes, newspaper articles from the original Muhammad Speaks, and dialogs the Messenger had with Master Fard Muhammad. They are a must for any follower.

The Muhammad Speaks website represents a treasure of information. Let's take it seriously.

We shouldn't rely on the Bible because it has been altered. We know who the devil is and we know it is impossible for him to tell the truth.

This website can help us take another look as we seek the truth on different issues. I've said it before and I'll say it again. Brothers, Sisters, please, Let's stop dancing with the devil, once and for all!

Thousands of children raped and abused in Catholic Schools

By

Brother Malik Muhammad

Brother Malik Muhammad

Priests and nuns beat and raped children, they were supposed to be caring for, during decades of abuse in Catholic run institutions in Ireland, according to a 2,600-page report by Ireland's Commission to Inquire Into Child Abuse.

The official report, made public on May 20, 2009, found that for decades rape was "endemic" in more than 250 Irish Catholic care institutions from the 1930s to the 1990s; that rape was particularly common in boys homes and industrial schools run by the Christian Brothers (a Catholic religious order and largest provider of residential care for boys in Ireland); and that the church in Ireland protected paedophiles in its ranks from arrest.

The five-volume report, that took nine years to complete, concluded that orphanages and industrial schools in 20th century Ireland were places of fear, neglect and sexual abuse. The commission chaired by a High Court Circuit Judge blasted successive generations of Priest, Nuns and Christian Brothers for beating, raping and starving children in Irelands now defunct network of industrial and reformatory schools.

According to the report, "When confronted with evidence of sexual abuse, the response of the religious authorities was to transfer the offender to another location where in many instances he was free to abuse again." "Children lived with the daily terror of not knowing where the next beating was coming from."

The report also slammed the department of education for its failure to stop the crimes. In rare cases, when it was informed of sexual abuse, "it colluded in silence" the report said. Successful legal action by the Christian Brothers, forced the commotion to drop its original intention to name the people against whom the allegations were made and none of the abusers will be prosecuted as a result of the inquiry.

The Christian Brothers said they were appalled at the revelations but denied that their lawsuit had obstructed the report. Many of the children were sent into church care because of school truancy, petty crimes or because they were unmarried mothers or their offspring.

The report said, children in industrial schools and reformatories were treated more like convicts and slaves than people with human rights. Some were used as laborers churning out rosary beads or set to work on farms. Sexual abuse was common in boys institutions and girls were preyed on by sexual predators who were able to operate unhindered.

The Commission interviewed 1,090 men and women who were housed in 216 institutions including children's homes, hospitals and schools. They told of scavenging for food from waste bins and animal feed, of floggings, scaldings and being held under water, there were underwear inspections and in one case a boy was forced to lick excrement from a priest's shoe.

Brothers and sisters The messenger the most honorable Elijah Muhammad told us that this is where this type of thing started (in the Christian church).

They are still bearing witness that our messenger was right when he told us the white man is the devil, he will always be the devil and don't you ever forget it.

The Messenger said, "The Catholic religion is our greatest enemy today. It seeks to woo you into its net where your future will be hopeless in the Hereafter"

"Now, I ask you, what good is Christianity to you and to me if that religion and the God of that religion will not defend us against lynching and rape?"

What is Codex Alimentarius?

By Brother Deron X

Brother Deron X

KANSAS--In the name of almighty God, Allah, and His last and greatest messenger, to the Blackman and Blackwoman in the wilderness of North America, I greet you in Peace;

As-salaam-alaikum.

Recently there has been much talk about the Codex Alimentarius Commission guidelines, also known as the Codex Health Guidelines, or The World Food Code.

It is basically a set of guidelines through a health trade agreement between countries of the world, which the U.S.A. may become a part of, that provides the standards and regulations for the use, production, and distribution of food, vitamins, minerals, and herbs.

This commission is administered by the World Health Organization (W.H.O.) and the Food and Agricultural Organization, (F.A.O.) at the request of the United Nations (U.N.).

The standards put forth by this commission are said to be implemented for the purpose of protecting consumers, by administering food and its by-products through approved safety measures.

What has been troubling to the people that this standard is supposed to be protecting, is that within these guidelines, nutrients are considered to be "toxins", and that consumers must be protected from them.

These guidelines also mandate that all animals used for food must be treated with antibiotics and growth hormones. In addition to the former, the guidelines also mandate that all food be irradiated (a process which is supposed to destroy bacteria and harmful pollutants, but which also destroys essential vitamins in the process.).

So according to the definition of "pure", practically no food would be considered that.

According to the World Health Organization's projections, it is supposedly estimated that the vitamin and mineral guidelines, if globally implemented on December 31, 2009, will result in a large number of deaths worldwide." Two-thirds of those affected will die from preventable diseases due to undernutrition. "

Most debates surrounding this issue have been over the truth of this discussion, whether or not these health guidelines will actually be implemented, and over the real risk associated with its prescribed course of action, or whether it's all just a fear mongering hoax.

Since we are living in the so-called information age, you can do your own research, and you can judge for yourself.

Either way, the Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad taught the believers that, There is very little pure food on the market today. And, there will not be any pure food on the market tomorrow, if they prepare it for you, because they are experimenting on your life to see what can take you away and what they can keep you here with, for a certain length of time." (How to Eat to Live: Book 1 chapter 39)

So if these mandates were put into practice it may be a manifestation of that prophecy, as given by the Messenger of Allah.

Along with that, Allah's divine messenger, Elijah Muhammad, taught us that the white race is a race of devils, and they are the arch deceivers, and that we should not trust them at all. So with these teachings in the forefront of our minds, we should pay close attention to what is being negotiated concerning the food that we eat." It may even spark us to question ourselves as to why we still trust our open enemies to feed us from their poisonous and experimental produce fields.

If we are smart believers we may be learning how to, and actually start, producing our own food for the survival of ourselves and our nation, so that no matter what our open enemies decide to do, we will be fed and we will be healthy.

With recent mass exposure of the raised bed gardening method, it may be common knowledge that produce can be grown practically anywhere; from an apartment balcony, to the biggest backyard.

It is my wish that we use whatever space we have to begin cultivating some kind of food for ourselves. And it is my hope that soon we will pool some of our resources to purchase some farm land, as Elijah Muhammad taught us to do, and produce something for our own Black self. Thank you for eating this food for thought. As-salaam-alaikum.

"has now been followed by judicial murder."

To pay just $1 to each of the 150 million Nigerians affected by the mass destruction of their country, it would cost Shell oil $150 million.

The family members of Saro-Wiwa, and the other murdered activists, were able to file a lawsuit against Shell Oil the United States, under a law called, The Alien Tort Claims Act, that dates back to 1789, and allows foreigners to bring suit in U.S. courts charging violations of international laws.

After 13 years of denying it played any role in the executions, on June 8, 2009, Shell agreed to pay a mere $15 million to the families of the murdered victims, to avoid going to court, one day before the trial was to begin.

The families agreed to the small settlement, in order to prevent another four or five years of waiting for appeals.

Even with the shamefully small settlement, the families say that $5 million of the settlement amount would go into a trust fund for the Ogoni people and the balance for lawyers fees and to the 10 plaintiffs who brought the case.

Shell Oil earns $458.361 billion a year.

The words of Messenger Elijah Muhammad are just as relevant today as they were 30, 40 or 50 years ago.

The Messenger said, "We cannot deny the fact that the Christian West is responsible for this universal corruption in the land and sea. The Christian West is full of the worst crimes, practicing evils and indecencies to the fullest and seeking to practice them on other nations as well..." "There is no justice for any of us in the courts of white people."

"They have been made manifest to the world as being a race of devils, wherein we cannot expect any justice or sincere friendship unless we are everything that they are in wickedness."

Troy Davis is only one out of more than 3,200-odd inmates on death row in the USA but he has a stronger claim of being wrongly convicted than most. Davis was convicted of the murder of Mark Allen MacPhail, a police officer, but there has never been any physical evidence linking him to the killing.

On August 19, 1989, Mark MacPhail, an off-duty policeman, was working as a security guard at a Burger King restaurant in Savannah, Georgia. The incident started when Sylvester "Redd" Coles (a police informant) began harassing a homeless man, Larry Young, for a beer while Troy Davis and others watched quietly from a distance. Coles verbally harassed and chased the homeless man to a nearby parking lot where MacPhail was working. Coles threatened the retreating homeless man by exclaiming: "You don't know me. Don't walk away from me. I'll shoot you." Davis and others silently followed the scuffle.

The homeless man yelled for help and MacPhail responded and was shot dead with a .38 caliber weapon. The parking lot was dark and the scene was chaotic. After the dust settled, the police took the statements of several onlookers but had no suspects. Redd Coles and Troy Davis were both African-American males of similar age, height and weight.

The day after the shooting, a spent shell from a .38 caliber revolver was discovered near the scene of the murder. The shell was similar to shell casings recovered near a shooting that occurred earlier that evening at a pool party in Cloverdale — not far from where MacPhail was killed. In that shooting, a man named Michael Cooper was shot. The two hosts of the pool party confirm that Coles was at the party. Davis was also at the party, but he was not with Coles.

The pool party shooting occurred when four boys — two of whom were Coles' neighbors — were shot at as they drove away from the party. One of the car's passengers was shot in the face.

Later that evening, as Coles' own sister testified at trial, Coles got into a heated argument with Joseph Blige, one of the teenagers riding in the car. Although excluded from trial as hearsay, Coles' sister's police statements show that Blige exclaimed to Coles: "I know y'all tried to kill me."

None of the boys riding in the car knew Davis or identified him as the pool party shooter, and the police search of Davis' house less than 24 hours after the shooting turned up no gun.

Coles initially lied about carrying the .38 caliber revolver, but later admitted to carrying it with him on the night of the murder. He claimed that it was lost when the police attempted to recover the gun for testing.

After the police swarmed his neighborhood looking for suspects, Redd Coles and his attorney approached the police to exonerate Coles and implicate Troy Davis. Before the police discovered Coles' lies, however, the police had issued an arrest warrant for Davis without corroborating any part of Coles' story. After the warrant was issued, Davis' picture was plastered on wanted posters and in the local Savannah media. Davis who, unlike Coles, had fled to Atlanta surrendered to authorities there on August 23. He admitted to being present at the Burger King parking lot, but denied shooting MacPhail. Davis stated that Coles had shot MacPhail.

The police never searched Coles' house for the murder weapon, never included Coles' picture in witness photo spreads, and paraded Coles in front of four State witnesses as a mere bystander in a crime scene "reenactment."

Davis asserted his innocence and a jury trial was held. Davis testified at trial and denied that he was involved in the shooting of Cooper or MacPhail.

On August 28, 1991, based solely on the testimony of eyewitnesses who had linked Davis to the shooting of MacPhail, the jury found Davis guilty on one count of murder and other offenses. and On August 30, 1991, the jury sentenced Troy Davis to death.

In 2001, seven of the witnesses, submitted admitted in written affidavits that their earlier statements falsely accusing Davis, had been coerced by strongarm police tactics.

One of the key prosecution witnesses, Dorothy Ferrel, recanted her testimony, stating in her affidavit that she was on parole when she testified, and was afraid that she'd be sent back to prison if she didn't agree to finger

Davis. In her affidavit, she wrote: "I told the detective that Troy Davis was the shooter, even though the truth was that I didn't know who shot the officer."

Another witness, Darrell Collins, a teenager at the time of the murder, said in a sworn affidavit that the police had scared him into falsely testifying by threatening to charge him as an accessory to the crime: Collins said, "[The police] were telling me that I was an accessory to murder and that I would ... go to jail for a long time and I would be lucky if I ever got out, especially because a police officer got killed ... I was only 16 and was so scared of going to jail."

files, contaminated and poorly stored evidence, and DNA test results that had been misinterpreted to wrongly match a suspect to a rape he had not committed

Finally an unprecedented external audit, ordered by the Governor of Virginia in 2004, concluded that the Virginia State Crime Lab's most senior DNA analyst, who is responsible for DNA testing in many of the state's capital cases, made serious errors in the capital case of Earl Washington, Jr., causing him to spend 7 unnecessary years behind bars, and that the laboratory's system to catch these errors completely failed.

Even though Wayne Williams was never charged, or tried in the deaths of any of the 29 murdered children, after he was convicted in the trial of the two adults, the police regarded the cases of 27 of the murdered children solved.

Williams' guilt has been disputed by many in the community. Even several of the victims' parents, did not believe Williams killed anyone.

Williams has always vehemently denied the charges.

On August 6, 2005, it was revealed that Charles T. Sanders, a white supremacist affiliated with the Ku Klux Klan who had been investigated for a role in the Atlanta child killings, once praised the crimes in secretly recorded conversations, that Williams defense team was unaware of.

Sanders told an informant for the Georgia Bureau of Investigation in the 1981 recording that the killer had "wiped out a thousand future generations of niggers."

Williams' lawyers hoped the new evidence would help their bid for a new trial, as police began to take another look at that case.

Police dropped the probe into the KKK's possible involvement after seven weeks, when Sanders and two of his brothers passed lie detector tests. The case was once again closed on July 21, 2006.

Former FBI profiler John E. Douglas wrote in his book Mindhunter, that he did not believe Williams committed all of those murders, and added that he believes law enforcement has some idea of who the other killers are, and that "it isn't a single offender and the truth isn't pleasant."

ALL MEN AND BOYS JOIN THE FOI

By
Minister Sultan Al-amin

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.--In The Name of Allah, The Beneficent, The Merciful Saviour, who appeared in the Divine individual unique personality of Master Fard Muhammad, to whom all praises are due forever.

We, the Muslims, forever thank Allah for his last and greatest Messenger, The Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad.

I Greet my Brothers and Sisters with the peace and paradise of the Arabic Muslim language of As-Salaam Alaikum.

We, the blackman of America, are faced with many problems. Everything that we, as a people, suffer in America was placed on us by the enemy devil (the white man).

For instance; drinking, smoking, drug addiction, disrespect of our women and children, hatred of self and kind, just to name a few, have plagued our people for years.

The false teachings and misguidance of the white man for 454 years has our people in a worst condition than any people on earth.

No relief came to us until July 4th 1930, when Master Fard Muhammad appeared in America teaching Islam.

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad, the last and greatest of all the Messengers of Allah, was raised up by Allah to bring our ‘Surely Allah loves those who fight in His way in ranks, as if they were a solid wall.’

--Holy Qur'an 61: 4

poor pitiful people out of mental slavery, suffering, and mental death imposed upon us by the enemy devil.

One of the general questions that Master Fard Muhammad asked The Honorable Elijah Muhammad was a key for our survival today. That question was: "What is the meaning of F.O.I.?"

The F.O.I. is the name given to the military training of men who belong to Islam in North America. Simply speaking The F.O.I is the blackman's Army. These are men who are not to be found equaled or matched with any men or army on the planet earth.

The F.O.I are militant in the sense that our operations (raising the dead) are done as one unit just as the universe is one.

The word militant, according to Webster's dictionary, has it's roots in Latin from the word military, meaning serve as a soldier. The word soldier is also rooted in Latin taken from the word solidus meaning solid.

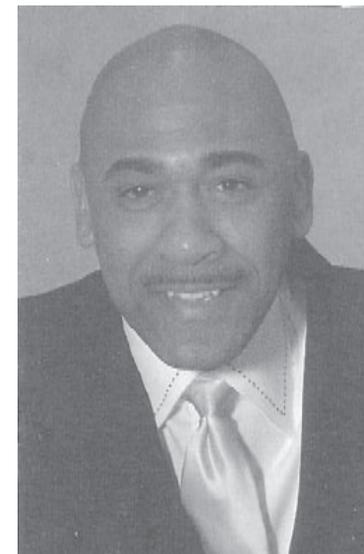

The Holy Qu-ran shines light on this topic in Chapter 61:4. Yes blackman, you need an army of men united under the crescent of Islam.

Unity, under Islam, is necessary for you and me to become the world's greatest people. Remember all nations have armies. Stop joining the white man's army for a few crumbs from his table. Join on to your own self and kind.

We are at war and Islam has always had it's heroes from dashing generals to famed swordsmen whose names even now, crowd the pages of history depicting to us our illustrious past.

Messenger Muhammad once related to some of his minister's who were blessed to be in his presence one evening a history he had read of one soldier of Islam who during battle had one of his arms severely cut and it hampered his ability to fight. The soldier, however was so intent upon helping to win the battle, rather than fall back to the rear, he took his sword and chopped off his arm so he could continue in battle.

Islam is always in need of a hero

to defend the word of Allah and help the Messenger in this great endeavour of lifting the blackman up. There has been many good men who have, fearlessly, carried the blood stained banner of Islam onto the battlefield in the heat of the day when the enemy was pressing down on their necks, yet the outcry of "Allah u Akbar" (GOD is THE GREATEST) rang out through the din of the battle.

Then there were, as always, the unsung heroes- the men who planned the battles, the men who organized the troops and saw to it that the battle was won. They were the pure plodders, the backbone of every good army- the ones who made every effort to see to it that each outpost was manned and every station held.

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad produced men like this in the F.O.I. The fruit of Islam is a place where all good men meet under the divine leadership of The Honorable Elijah Muhammad.

Many of us came from immoral backgrounds such as jails, the streets, the alleys. Wherever the devil left us emerged in filth and indecency, yet Messenger Muhammad was able to raise us up from that mud. What a great leader and teacher Messenger Muhammad was! The Honorable Elijah Muhammad didn't have to isolate us to West point academy or ship us overseas to discipline us. We, with the help of Allah, were raised up in all the major cities of America, right in our neighborhoods under his divine leadership.

The F.O.I. has a great responsibility, to deliver 30 to 60

History of the Monkey

By
Brother Nazar Muhammad

As Salaam Alaikum!

My name is Nazar Muhammad. I am seven years old and I attend Chicago Public School. My mother also teaches me at home.

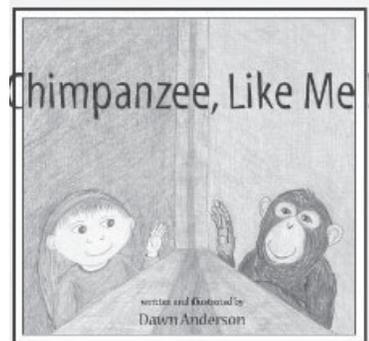

My favorite subject at home is Islamic Studies, by the Honorable Elijah Muhammad.

I read this book named, "Chimpanzee Like Me!", by Dawn Anderson.

In the book, the little girl visits the Zoo with her mom and she compares herself to a male chimpanzee name Berundi.

Berundi's family is the same size arms are longer than human arms. They both watch and copy their families to learn how to act and be a part of the family.

If the Chimpanzee's were in the Jungle, they would sleep in trees

Brother Nazar Muhammad
Age, 7

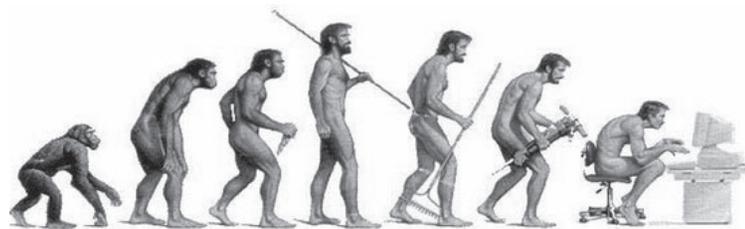

He said, the White race was punished for making mischief in heaven and deceiving the ancient original people who were holy.

Their punishment was being without divine guidance for 2,000 years which turned them into wild beast.

They walked on all fours, they ate raw meat, unseasoned, and uncooked food. They lived in caves and tree tops. They climbed and jumped from tree to tree.

The Messenger said, that the "monkeys are from them."

I thank Allah in the person of Master Fard Muhammad for teaching His Messenger, the Honorable Elijah Muhammad the truth about the Original Man and the White Race. I'm glad that the Monkey's history came from mankind and not the Black Man's History which is from God.

as the girl's. They both have a dad, mom, children and other relatives.

The girl and the chimpanzee have similar habits like eating, sleeping, playing and raising their families.

The Chimpanzees' eat plants and bugs. The girl's family eat vegetables and some times meat.

Berundi and the girl make the same faces: funny, sad, and smiley.

Chimpanzees mostly walk using both their arms and legs. Their and their beds made of branches.

Human families live in homes and sleep in beds called mattress.

Chimpanzees are from Central Africa.

At first I thought that the Chimpanzees acted like all human beings. Then I read in the Message To The Black Man, The Making of the Devil.

On pages 103 and 104, The Messenger explained how monkeys, apes and swine were made.

Obama urged to grant clemency to innocent Black Man

At least three witnesses who testified against Davis have since said that Sylvester "Redd" Coles admitted that he was the one who had killed the officer. Additionally, five new witnesses implicated Coles, not Davis, in the murder of MacPhail.

The only eyewitness, aside from Coles, who did not recant his testimony is Steve Sanders, whose in-court identification occurred two years after the crime.

Sanders' police statement on the night of the shooting stated that he would not "recognize the shooter." Two years later he identified Davis as the shooter for the first time at trial.

Davis, like many indigent death row inmates, was represented by court-appointed state attorneys from the Georgia Resource Center. Just as the Resource Center's lawyers were preparing Davis' appeal, Congress eliminated $20 million in funding to post-conviction defender organizations like the Georgia center, which lost 70% of its budget. Six of the center's eight lawyers left, as well as three of its four investigators, and Davis' case became one of about 80 that Beth Wells, then executive director, had to handle.

"The work conducted on Mr. Davis' case was akin to triage," Wells wrote in an affidavit, "where we were simply trying to avert total disaster rather than provide any kind of active or effective representation... There were numerous witnesses that we knew should have been interviewed, but lacked the resources to do so."

As a direct result, the vast majority of the recantations and other new evidence of Davis' innocence went undiscovered and unheard as Davis' appeals proceeded through state courts. Consequently, his conviction and death sentence were affirmed by the Supreme Court of Georgia.

In response to Davis' petition to have his case reheard, prosecutors Spencer Lawton and David Lock argued that under Georgia law it was too late to present the recantations as evidence for new trial, and, in addition, claimed that the "submitted affidavits are insufficient to raise doubts as to the constitutionality of the result at trial."

Amnesty International has strongly condemned the refusal of U.S. courts to examine the innocence evidence, and has organized rallies and letter-writing campaigns to persuade the Georgia and Federal courts to grant Davis a new trial or an evidentiary hearing.

Many prominent politicians and leaders, including President Jimmy Carter, Pope Benedict XVI, Archbishop Desmond Tutu, and former FBI Director and judge William S. Sessions, have called upon the courts to grant Davis a new trial or evidentiary hearing.

In a desperate attempt to save one poor Black Brother's life, people all over the world are calling for President Barak Obama to step in and use his Executive authority to grant clemency to Troy Davis. ■

Why Does the Devil Keep Us Apart From His Social Equality?

By

Sister Pia Angela Muhammad

CINCINNATI, Ohio--In the name of Allah who came in the person of Master Fard Muhammad. We thank Him for raising for us Messenger Elijah Muhammad (peace be upon him).

I read this lesson in the supreme wisdom years ago but never truly appreciated the depth of the answer. I would wonder, "How bad could they really be?" I grew up in an integrated neighborhood and went to a white church where I enjoyed being the "token Negro", along with my brother. The only difference that I could see between us was that they were more stiff, rigid and serious than we were. They would smile at me and give me candy and I was in heaven. I never knew how filthy they were. I never knew that behind those smiles were beasts.

The Messenger taught if we knew how nasty they were not only would we not want to be around them, but we would run them from among us.

Right after getting married my husband and I moved to a small town in the Ozark Mountains with 7000 people, but a black population of 6. It was eye opening.

While having dinner with the only other black couple there, we found out that we had moved right in the middle of a notorious town of swingers/homosexuals. They told us as we were leaving, "If we were natives this night would continue on" and laughed. I didn't really believe it because, even though I knew this lesson, I still thought those things only happened on television, and even then only on cable.

After awhile we decided to move back to the city. No one in our subdivision had ever spoken to us until they saw the U-Haul in the driveway. Even then I think they just wanted to make sure that we were leaving for good. But there was one churchgoing couple who decided to seize the moment to see if they could pull us into their debauchery a few days before we left. The husband had actually been thinking of this for months.

As a Muslim I really shouldn't have been shocked, but I was.

The Messenger taught us that we live in a modern day Babylon. Anything goes. We have taken these people for role models and are becoming more savage and shameless as time goes by. We forget that these people's habits are from the caves of Europe and lack any trace of civilization. What kind of man would want to share his wife with another? What kind of man is attracted to another man and risks the possibility of bringing home diseases to the mother of his children? What kind of nasty woman would allow these things to happen? A pathetic beast or an ignorant savage!

The devil loves to be separated from us so that he can freely practice these things out of our

'The Messenger taught if we knew how nasty they were not only would we not want to be around them'

view while appearing to us to be civilized and good. You would never guess the lewd and indecent things they do behind closed doors. Every now and then though, they will test you to see if you will follow.

This topic popped back in my mind this weekend as I visited a small tourist town in southern Indiana. On the way there, we passed a town called Gnaw Bone. I said to my husband with a name like that I can only imagine what goes on here. When we got to our destination I went to a shop that sold T-Shirts. The first one I saw said, "What happens in Gnaw Bone stays in Gnaw Bone" and it had a picture of a man in a bathtub with a goat. Before I would have thought that it was just a joke shirt. Now I know that there is a little bit of truth in most humor.

The Messenger of Allah was all wise. Never doubt or underestimate the things that he has told you about. He never exaggerated.

The Bible says in Revelations 18:2, "And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird."

Always remember who you are dealing with when in close proximity to them. They are evil, filthy, pagans and demons. Do not let them draw you in to their world of foolishness and freakiness. Do not think that they are nice just because they act friendly. Behind that smile are cold blue eyes ready to take you straight to Hell with them. If you really knew what they did, you would never idolize them again. Keep your guard up and your blinders off!

As-salaam alaikum.

million of our black people to the lamb of Allah, The Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad, before the coming destruction of this world.

The F.O.I. are men who measure their manhood, not by the yardstick of how low or tight you can wear your pants, or how many women you can sleep with.

The F.O.I. are men who create and dominate their own environment their own field of operation according to the guidance of Messenger Muhammad's aims and purposes, not the white man's example of what a blackman should be.

The F.O.I. is head of the household a natural protector of his women and children. The F.O.I. has no room for cowards or fools. But Islam, as taught by Messenger Elijah Muhammad will make a coward brave and a fool wise. Stand up blackman clean yourself up, shave your germ-infested beards and make yourself look like civilized men. Join onto the F.O.I.. Be counted among your people as a respected and civilized man to be honored and not disgraced in the annals of history.

The Messenger of Allah Presents

The Muslim Program

What the Muslims Want

This is the question asked most frequently by both the whited and the blacks. The answers to this question I shall state as simply as possible.

1. We want freedom. We want a full and complete freedom.

2. We want justice. Equal justice under the law. We want justice applied equally to all, regardless of creed, or class, or color.

3. We want equality of opportunity. We want equal membership in society with the best in civilized society.

4. We want our people in America whose parents or grandparents were descendants from slaves, to be allowed to establish a separate state or territory of their own...either on this continent or elsewhere. We believe that our former slave masters are obliged to provide such land and that the area must be fertile and mineral rich. We believe that our former slave masters are obligated to maintain and supply our needs in this separate territory for the next 20 to 25 years...until we are able to produce our own needs.

Since we cannot get along with them in peace and equality, after giving them 400 years of our sweat and blood, and receiving in return some of the worst treatment human beings have ever experienced, we believe our contributions to this land and the suffering forced upon us by white America, justifies our demand for complete separation in a state or territory of our own.

5. We want freedom for all Believers of Islam now held in federal prisons. We want freedom for all black men and women now under death sentence in innumerable prisons in the North, as well as the South.

We want every black man and woman to have the freedom to accept or reject being separated from the slave master's children and establish a land of their own.

We know that the above plan for the solution of the black and white conflict is the best and only answer to the problem between two people.

6. We want an immediate end to the police brutality and mob attacks against the so-called Negro throughout the United States.

We believe that the Federal government should intercede to see that black men and women tried in white courts receive justice in accordance with the laws of the land - or allow us to build a new nation for ourselves, dedicated to justice, freedom and liberty.

7. As long as we are not allowed to establish a state or territory of our own, we demand not only equal justice under the laws of the United States, but equal employment opportunities - NOW.

We do not believe that after 400 years of free or nearly free labor, sweat and blood, which has helped America become rich and powerful, that so many thousands of black people should have to subsist on relief, charity, or live in poor homes.

8. We want the government of the United States to exempt our people from All Taxation as long as we are deprived of equal justice under the laws of the land.

9. We want equal education -but separate schools up to 16 for boys and 18 for girls on the condition that the girls be sent to women's colleges and universities. We want all black children, educated, taught and trained by their own teachers.

Under such schooling systems we believe we will make a better nation of people. The United States government should provide, free, all necessary text books and equipment, schools, and college buildings. The Muslim teachers shall be left free to teach and train their people in the way of righteousness, decency and self respect.

10. We believe that intermarriage or race mixing should be prohibited. We want the religion of Islam taught without hindrance or suppression.

These are some of the things that we, the Muslims, want for our people in North America.

What the Muslims Believe

1. WE BELIEVE in the One God Whose proper Name is Allah.

2. WE BELIEVE in the Holy Qur'an and in the Scriptures of all the Prophets of God.

3. WE BELIEVE in the truth of the Bible, but we believe that it has been tampered with and must be reinterpreted so that mankind will not be snared by the falsehoods that have been added to it.

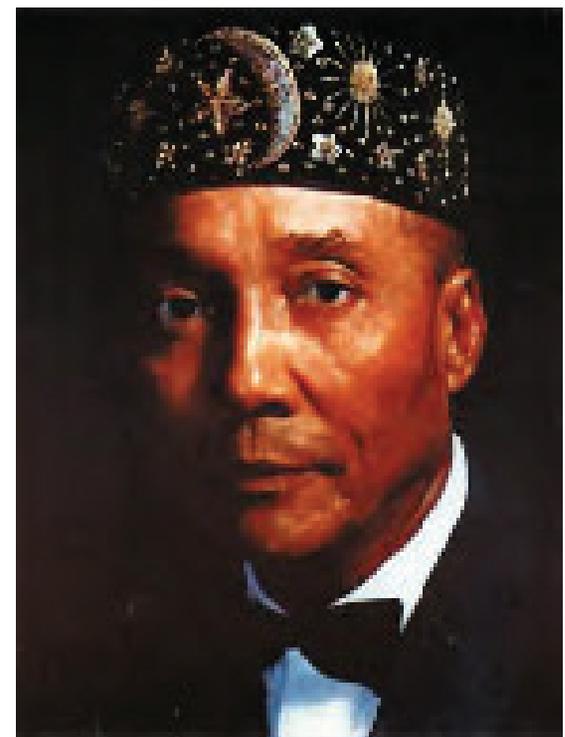

4. WE BELIEVE in Allah's Prophets and the Scriptures they brought to the people.

5. WE BELIEVE in the resurrection of the dead -- but not in the physical resurrection -- but in mental resurrection. We believe that the so-called Negro's are most in need of mental resurrection therefore they will be resurrected first.

Furthermore, we believe we are the people of God's choice, as it has been written. That God would choose the rejected and the despised. We can find no other persons fitting this description in these last days more than the so-called Negro's in America. We believe in the resurrection of the righteous.

6. WE BELIEVE in the judgement; We believe this first judgement will take place in America.

7. WE BELIEVE this is the time in history for the separation of the so-called Negro's and so-called white Americans. We believe the black men should be freed in name as well as in fact. By this we mean that he should be freed from the names imposed upon him by his former slave masters. Names which identified him as being the slave master's slave. We believe that if we are free indeed, we should go in our own people's names - the black people of the earth.

The Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad
THE LAST MESSENGER OF ALLAH

8. WE BELIEVE in justice for all, whether in God or not; We believe as others, that we are due equal justice as human beings. We believe in equality -- as a nation - of equals. We do not believe that we are equal with our slave master in the status of "freed slaves".

We recognize and respect American citizens as independent people and we respect their laws which govern this nation.

9. WE BELIEVE that the offer of Integration is hypocritical and is made by those who are trying to deceive the black people into believing that their 400 year-old open enemies of freedom, justice and equality are, all of a sudden, their "friends". Furthermore, we believe that such deception is intended to prevent black people from realizing that the time in history has arrived for the separation from the whites of this nation.

If the white people are truthful about their professed friendship toward the so-called Negro, they can prove it by dividing up America with their slaves.

We do not believe that America will ever be able to furnish jobs for her own millions of unemployed, in addition to jobs for the 20,000,000 black people as well.

10. WE BELIEVE that we who declared ourselves to be righteous Muslims, should not participate in wars which take the lives of humans. We do not believe this nation should force us to take part in such wars, for we have nothing to gain from it unless America agrees to give us the necessary territory wherein we may have something to fight for.

11. WE BELIEVE our women should be respected and protected as the women of their nationalities are respected and protected.

12. WE BELIEVE that Allah (God) appeared in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, July, 1930; the long-awaited "Messiah" of the Christians and the "Mahdi" of the Muslims.

We believe further and lastly that Allah is God and besides HIM there is no God and He will bring about a universal government of peace wherein we all can live in peace together.
